R. C. No. 2361/06

Station Madras, Dated the 14 April 1906.

From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. A.G. Eourne, D.Sc., F.R.S.

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sr,

In G.O. R. No. 323, Educational, dated 16th June 1905 C.R. Gopalaswami Raju, the acting drawing master, Reformatory School, Chingleput, was exempted from the examination rules until the 31st March 1906. The Superintendent of the above school now recommends the drawing master's permanent exemption mainly on two grounds, viz., (1) that it has not been found possible to obtain the services of a qualified drawing master to teach drawing and (2) that the present man has given great satisfaction in the discharge of his duties and has further been turning to good account his knowledge of wood carving. This recommendation has my strong support.

These

These posts in the Reformatory are not much sought after and when we have got a good man it seems desirable to keep him.

The exemption might well apply to service in the Reformatory only.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

K. P. D.

For Director of Public Instruction.

C. No. 652 From the D. P. I. No. 2361, dated 14-4-1906.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

T In G. O. R. n. 328 Ed, dated 16th June 1905, C. R. Gopalaswami Raju, the acting drawing master of the Reformatory School, Chingleput, was exempted from the examination rules until the 31st of March 1906. The Insp^t of the above School now recommends the drawing master's permanent exemption on 2 grounds: —

(1) That it has not been found possible to obtain the services of a qualified drawing master to teach drawing.

(2) That the present man has given great satisfaction in the discharge of his duties and has further been turning to good account his knowledge of wood carving.

2. This recommendation has the strong support of the D. P. I. The D. P. I. also observes that these posts in the Reformatory are not much much sought after, and that it is desirable, that when once a suitable man has been found, his services should be retained.

3. Orders are solicited as to whether the permanent exemption applied for, may be granted.

PKD
18.4.06.

The first application for exemption (temporary) was made in February 1905. The Director then said "It appears to be impossible to procure the services of a passed candidate who possesses as well the requisite technical qualifications for the drawing master's post on such a small pay as Rs 15. If his (C.R. Gopalaswami Raju's) work continues to be satisfactory he may be confirmed in his appointment and exempted permanently from the general Education test. If the appointment of a qualified candidate is considered necessary the pay of the post will, I think, have to be raised."

Temporary exemption up to 30th June 1905 was then granted & the Director asked to "submit proposals to raise the pay of the appointment to Rs 15-1-20 so as to secure a qualified candidate likely to remain permanently in the post" - G.O. No 155 of 15-3-05.

J. K. 2. Subsequently in his letter No 4724 of 25th May 1905

Col: 7 of the application in page 2 of G.O. No 155
of 15-3-05. J.

the Director asked for permission to defer submission
 " of the proposals called for until the Superintendent (of " the Reformatory School) has had time to make the " necessary attempts (to secure a qualified candidate) and
 " to report the result."

T. 3. In his letter ^{in the} 8th R in 318 Rd dt 16th June 1905 (already granted)
 the Director requested that the temporary exemption might be extended up to 31st March 1906 observing that "the vacancy
 " is being advertised in the Gazette, but no one has yet
 " applied for it and the Superintendent, School of Arts, who was " asked to recommend a suitable person is unable to do so
 " and is doubtful if the pay offered is sufficient to attract
 " one qualified under the rules."

The Director added ^{that} if Sopaleswami Rapis work
 " continues to be satisfactory, he may be exempted permanently
 " and confirmed in his appointment."

4. There is nothing in the papers to show why ^{proposals have not been submitted} the pay to raise the pay.
 of the appointment so as to secure the services of a fully qualified candidate, but when a competent technically qualified candidate is available there is perhaps no special necessity to raise the pay & get an educationally & technically qualified candidate. The technical qualification is the ^{more} ~~most~~ important in the case of a drawing master and ^{in the present case the master} he has only to deal with lower class boys.

Korwell. Action the exemption for 1905

When a competent technician qualified candidate is available then perhaps we shouldn't wait to raise the pay & get an eventually
- technically qualified candidate. The technician qualification is the most important with regard to the quality of the work done.
