Educational DEPARTMENT.

FROM

No. 346 of 1906.

XV-932.

SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

UNITED PROVINCES,

To

The Secretary to the Government of

Madras, (Education department).

Dated Allahabad. 7 April 1906.

Sir,

I am directed to state, for the information of the Government of Madras, that M. Madho Lal of Chowkramba, Benares, has founded scholarships for the encouragement of the higher study of Sanskrit at the Government Sanskrit College, Benares. In order to attract promising students from other provinces, he desires that the terms of the scholarships may be given wide publicity. I am accordingly to forward a copy of a notice issued by the Director of Public Instruction of this province, setting forth the terms of the scholarships, and to request that, with the permission of His Excellency in Council, it may be published in the official gazette of the Madras Presidency.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. A. H. J. J.

Under Secretary

For Secretary.

NOTICE
OFFICE OF DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, UNITED PROVINCES.

Dated Allahabad, the 26th January 1906.

The Local Government having approved of an application made by the Hon'ble Munshi Madho Lal of Chowkhamba, Benares, that a sum of Rs. 45,000 be vested under the designation of the "Sadho Lal Scholarship Endowment Trust, Benares" in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments for the territories subject to the said Local Government to be applied in trust upon the terms that the interest accruing thereon be expended in the payment of scholarships for the higher study of Sanskrit at the Government Sanskrit College, Benares, on certain conditions, the following is published for general information:—

- (1) That, save as hereinafter provided, three or a lesser number of scholarships, each of which shall be tenable for four years, be awarded every alternate year by a committee consisting of the Principal of the Government Sanskrit College, Benares, as chairman, and the senior Pandit of the aforesaid college, and the head of the family of the founder (the Hon'ble Munshi Madho Lal), as members or by a majority thereof;
  - (2) that the scholarships shall ordinarily be of the value of Rs. 20 per mensem each, tenable from such a date as the aforesaid committee or a majority thereof may decide, but that the committee or a majority thereof shall have power to raise or reduce the amount of the scholarships, or any of them provided that no scholarship shall be less than Rs. 10 per mensem nor more than Rs. 50 per mensem;
  - (3) that one scholarship annually shall be given to a Vernagar Nagar Brahmin, or a Gujarati Punch Dravid Brahmin, provided that the applicant is a graduate of an Indian University or an Acharya or Teeratha or having equivalent qualifications who shall satisfy the committee that he has reached a sufficient degree of proficiency in Sanskrit and English to carry the study of Sanskrit higher, and that he intends to do so; and to become acquainted with the methods of linguistic research followed by European scholars, and with the achievements and progress of European scholarship;
  - (4) that the other scholarships, and if no qualified Vernagar Nagar Brahmin or Gujarati Punch Dravid Brahmin candidate be forthcoming, the aforesaid scholarship shall be given to Brahmin graduates of any Indian University or Brahmin Acharyas or Teerathas or persons having equivalent qualification who shall satisfy the committee that they have reached a sufficient degree of proficiency in Sanskrit and English to carry their studies of Sanskrit higher, and that they intend to do so, and to become acquainted with the methods of linguistic research followed by European scholars and with the achievements and progress of European scholarship;
  - (5) that the holders of the scholarships shall in all matters obey the orders of the committee, or of a majority thereof, who shall have power to withdraw scholarships at any time;
  - (6) that if the full number of scholarships be not awarded or if from any other cause savings accrue, such savings shall be devoted to encouraging the study of Sanskrit in any manner which the committee may unanimously approve, or shall be added to the endowment;
  - (7) that the holders of the scholarships shall be called "Sadho Lal Scholars" and that on the completion of the term of their scholarships to the satisfaction of the committee their names shall be forwarded to the Registrar of the Allahabad University.
2. Applications for these scholarships should be made in writing to the Principal, Government Sanskrit College, Benares.
