Sir,

B

With reference to G.O. No. 271 Educational dated 18th April 1906 I have the honour to submit the enclosed application from Miss Scott Coward dated 15th April 1906 requesting permission to remain in service until October next, and to observe that it will not cause any inconvenience to allow her to continue in service until then or until the date of her relief if that should first occur.

At the same time I must point out that Miss Scott Coward has been absent from duty since 30th March 1906 and I am submitting an application for leave through the Accountant-General as soon as I receive a report from a Medical Board, so that the above recommendation must be considered as contingent upon a favourable report from the Board indicating that she will be fit for work after the vacation.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sir,

Referring to my previous letter in which I asked to be relieved of my duties on or about the 15th July, I have the honour to request you to allow me to alter that date to the 16th October. I trust that this will be equally convenient to you.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedt. servant,

Milburga Scott Coward.

A draft order permitting Miss Scott-Coward to remain in Service until October next is submitted below for approval.

In the despatch to the Secretary of State about a successor to Miss Scott-Coward now being printed the date of her resignation has already been altered by the Secretary to 1st October 1906.

I think the extension should be conditional upon a report from the Medical Board that the lady will be fit for work after the vacation. This is what D. P. I. says & the draft should make this clear.

Miss Scott-Coward's application for leave ~~The leave application has been received vide~~ was received yesterday evening. Please see Current in linked file. The Medical Board recommends the grant of leave for ~~[illegible]~~ days from the 30th March 1906 - page 8 of the Current in that file. From Miss Scott-Coward's letter no 241 dt 30th April 1906 ~~[illegible]~~ page 6 of the Current in the same file - it appears that she returned to work on the afternoon of the 27th April 1906.

2. Should the extension ~~[illegible]~~ of service to 1st October 1906 applied for be granted? If so should ~~[illegible]~~ it be ~~[illegible]~~ made conditional upon any further report from the Medical Board?

PT 12/5/06 3. Pending further orders the despatch to the Secretary of State has been held over.

Sec.

The Director's letter in the linked Current is dated 5th May & ~~therefore presumably~~ Miss S-C. ~~has~~ returned to duty on 27th April. I note however, that her illness was due to "climatic influences," & it is not improbable ~~that~~ the hot weather will again make her ill. She is, I believe, by no means a lady of robust health. ~~[illegible]~~ However

Since she has returned to duty the condition suggested by the Director in the current seems unnecessary.

Dear Mr. Forbes,

I have just learnt: unofficially, that my resignation from the Educational service is likely to be accepted for July, instead of October next: to which I had asked to be allowed to defer it. I do not know why this is, unless it is owing to some want of formality in the amendment; which was made whilst I was ill in hospital.

I should be so grateful if you would allow me to resign from the later date; I understand that the matter rests with you.

Yours sincerely,
M. Scott Coward.

Miss S-C. has been *allowed to remain in Service until Oct. 1st unless she is relieved before that date. She will hear of this in a few days. Put this up with the file.
