Permission to appear for the special tests.

Declining to permit L. Pitchayya, acting second English clerk, Collector's office, Guntúr, to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, Higher grade; and observing that the Collector can, under the Board's Standing Order No. 138, paragraph 1 (iii), recommend L. Pitchayya for appointment as Deputy Tahsildar or Tahsildar if his merits are such that the interests of the district administration will be distinctly promoted by such appointment.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers :—

I

Letter—from N. S. Brodie, Esq., M.A., I.C.S., Collector of Guntúr.
To—the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue.
Dated—the 27th April 1906.
No.—R.C. No. 1011/Acc.

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government in the Educational Department for permitting L. Pitchayya, the permanent third and acting second English clerk of my office, to appear for the Criminal Test, Higher grade, of the special tests prescribed for the public service.

2. Pitchayya has passed the Matriculation examination and so long ago as 1890 completed his special tests, Revenue and Criminal, in the Lower grade, under the rules then in force and qualified himself for a Tahsildar's post. He has since passed the Account Test, Higher grade. The rules regarding the qualifications of officers to be appointed to Tahsildar's and Deputy Tahsildar's posts have since been modified and no one who is not either a graduate or has not passed either of the principal special tests (Revenue and Criminal) in the Higher grade can now be recommended for these appointments, and Matriculates are not ordinarily permitted to appear for any of these examinations.

3. L. Pitchayya represents that he has been handicapped by the revision in the rules and requests, in consideration of his seventeen years' service, he may be specially allowed to appear for Criminal Test, Higher grade. He does not seek exemption from passing it but only wants permission to appear for the test. He is efficient and hardworking, and his merits are such as to deserve encouragement. Clerks and accountants do not often come forward with a request of this kind and I need hardly submit that when they do, they deserve support in the interests of district administration. I accordingly recommend that he be specially allowed to appear for the Criminal Test, Higher grade.

His application is submitted herewith.

Enclosure.

Application—from L. Pitchayya, Acting Second English clerk, Collector's office, Guntúr.
To—the Collector of Guntúr (through the Treasury Deputy Collector, Guntúr).
Dated—the 17th April 1906.

I am the permanent third and acting second English clerk of your honour's office. I am a Matriculate and have put in seventeen years' service. I have passed the Tahsildar's Test. Though I may be said to have passed the Tahsildar's Test (with Account Higher) I fear I don't possess the qualifications for a Sub-Magistrate's place as per Board's Standing Order No. 138. Being only a Matriculate, I cannot appear for Revenue or Criminal Higher, and the above-quoted Board's Standing Order says that one of the two "Highers" is necessary for a Sub-Magistrate, unless the Collector is pleased to certify "that the merits of the officer are such that the interests of the district administration will be distinctly promoted by his appointment." I passed the Criminal Lower as early as 1890, i.e., sixteen years ago, and there was then no ruling that one of the two "Highers" was necessary for a Sub-Magistrate's place. Rules regarding the qualifications for applying for Criminal Higher have since been modified and I therefore cannot apply for Criminal Higher now.

Seventeen years ago when I entered the Revenue Department I did so with full hope that I may rise soon and I therefore hastened to qualify myself by passing all the required tests within two years of my service. After so many years of honest and willing service I find that a change in the rules has put another difficulty in my way and my hopes have thus been frustrated when I could turn to no other line of greater promise.

As persons who have qualified themselves for Sub-Magistrates and other higher posts are generally given preference to others in promotion, this disqualification stands in my way even for promotions in the lower grades. In consideration, therefore, that I have already passed the Criminal Lower so long as sixteen years ago and of my long service in the department, I venture to beg that your honour will be graciously pleased to get the sanction of Government for exemption from examination rules to appear for the Criminal Test, Higher grade.

Forwarded for favourable consideration. The applicant deserves every encouragement. It is laudable that this hardworking accountant should evince a desire of this kind and the sanction of Government may be applied for in the interests of the public service also.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 363, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 24TH MAY 1906.

[SUBJECT.—Application from L. Pitchayya, Acting Second English clerk, Collector's office Guntúr, for permission to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, Higher grade.]

From the Board of Revenue, Land Revenue, dated 7th May 1906, Ref. D. No. 121.

The applicant is a Matriculate. So long ago as 1890, he qualified himself for a Tahsildar's post under the rules then in force. He has since passed the Account test, higher grade. The Collector says that the rules regarding the qualifications of officers to be appointed to Tahsildar's and Deputy Tahsildar's posts have since been modified, that no one who is not either a graduate or has not passed either of the principal special tests (Revenue and Criminal) in the higher grade can now be recommended for these appointments and that the applicant being only a Matriculate cannot appear for the Revenue or the Criminal test in the Higher grade. He recommends therefore, that special permission may be granted to the applicant to appear for the Criminal test, higher grade, in consideration of his long service of 18 years. The Collector also says "He is efficient and hardworking and his merits are such as to deserve encouragement. "Clerks and Accountants do not often come forward with a request of this kind and "I need hardly submit that when they do, they deserve support in the interests of "district administration."

2. The Board of Revenue supports the Collector's recommendation.

3. It is submitted that the Collector has not correctly quoted the new rule regarding qualifications of candidates for appointment as Tahsildars and Deputy Tahsildars. The rule is as follows:—

"As a general rule, persons recommended for the post of Tahsildar or Deputy "Tahsildar should either be graduates or have passed in the higher grade one of the "principal special tests—Revenue and Criminal—prescribed for these posts in para-"graph 3 of Standing Order No. 129. If it is proposed to appoint a person who does "not satisfy either of the abovementioned qualifications the entry of his name in the "list should invariably be accompanied by a certificate signed by the Collector to "the effect that the merits of the officer are such that the interests of the district "administration will be distinctly promoted by his appointment"

4. Under this rule if the Collector wants to see the applicant appointed a Deputy Tahsildar or Tahsildar, he has only to enter his name in the list accompanied by a certificate signed by him "to the effect "that the merits of the officer are such "that the interests of the district administration will be distinctly promoted by his "appointment." This he is apparently unwilling to do. Under the circumstances it is for consideration whether the permission applied for should be granted.

Yes. This may be pointed out to the Board.

Revenue Department.

Both the Collector and the Board recommend that the man should be allowed to appear for the tests.

He passed in the old tests.

If he now passes in Revenue and Criminal Higher he will be eligible for promotion to post of Tahsildar without the Collector having to certify that "the district "administration will be distinctly promoted by his appointment". Such a certificate is rather a large order.

F. B. Evans—17-5-06.

In the case dealt with in G.O., No. 111, dated 25th April 1906, the Collector did not recommend (vide Mr. Taylor's note, dated 19th April). That seems sufficient to differentiate the present case from the precedent, if Educational Department sees fit. Personally I am inclined to agree with Mr. Brodie's paragraph 3. Everyone knows that examinations are not an infallible test of fitness, and if a clerk is found to be "efficient and hardworking," I should be disposed to let him try to complete the special tests.

Submitted to the Honourable Member for orders. If Pitchayya goes up and passes the Criminal Higher he can then be promoted to the post of Deputy Tahsildar and Tahsildar without any special certificate of merit. I do not know that this is desirable. If he is not a really good man, it is perhaps better that he should not be promoted as a mere consequence of passing an examination. If he is a very good man, then he can be promoted even though he has not passed the Criminal or Revenue Higher. I think the draft may stand.

A. Butterworth—21-5-06.

I am disposed to agree.

These examinations are not tests of fitness but only qualifications (and ordinarily indispensable qualifications). A departure from the rule puts the cart before the horse, and tends to make candidates believe that the examination is the main thing.
