I have the honour to forward the annual report on the working of the Law College, Madras, for the year 1905, the submission of which has been delayed owing to recent changes in the college office.

His place has since been filled up by K. R. Subba Rao.

3. Accommodation.—Two wrought-iron gates to the entrances to the south and east verandahs on the ground-floor of the college have been provided. The addition of a railing or wall to the low wall built in continuation of the High Court stables requested in my letter No. 128, dated the 12th September 1904, has not so far been carried out.
