Most Respected Sir,

I beg respectfully to submit that having regard to the respectable family to which I belonged & the strict honesty & integrity & hard-work with which I served both the Police & Revenue Depts. & the recommendation made by the then collector Mr. H. Shipley Esquire, the Government was pleased to exempt me from the operation of re-examination rules & permitted me to appear for the Criminal Justice & Revenue Exams for 3 years in its stead in the foregoing paras, I beg most respectfully to pray that I may be permitted to appear for these examinations at my convenience till I secure a pass in these examinations.

5. I remember having submitted in my former petition the details of the respectability of the family from which I have descended & a repetition will, I submit, be redundant.

Most Respected Patron,
In submitting herewith my petition, I beg most respectfully and humbly to submit that I wrote this petition and ^{took} it to your most gracious honours Bungalow on the morning of 30.10.06; but being told that your honour had been engaged in handling our charge in getting things packed up, I went away to the Junction Ry. Station thinking that I would pay my respects to your honour there & submit everything there. I could not approach your Honour at the Junction Station. At the Khatola Ry. Station, I wanted to submit everything, but as you took up the railway path after, I thought it not ⁱⁿ keeping with the principles ⁶ of etiquette to depart from the topic begun by your honour. I thought of keeping quiet till your most Gracious honour's return to this place & have been brooding over it for the last 2 days but I am now told that your honour will continue there as Secretary & would not return here. Hence filled with fear I have taken the liberty of submitting this epistle as if to a father, for I have such a filial love to your honour. I thought of even coming over there in person.

But this is Jamaica's time, when service of water also engages my time & requires my presence here always.

A. G. Leardner Esquire, who knows full well the respectability of my family & under whom my younger brother served with confidence & honesty, told me ⁱⁿ 1835 submit a petition praying for permission to appear for barrister & receive my fees & to which I did not get permission as submitted in the enclosed petition. ⁷ The Hon. Mr. Haumeck, Esquire under whom I served who only as Special Commissioner took me by wire from Anguilla on special duty for the Anti-Slavery of January 1838, also knows my ability & honesty & the respectability of my family.

Your most Gracious honour also knows how hard & honestly I have been working for the last 14 years & especially for the reasons have been so bad.

I beg to mention overleaf a few details of my family.

In conclusion, I beg most humbly & respectfully to be pardoned to pray that your most Generous honour may protect me by granting me the permission prayed for. With your honour's most Gracious leave I shall be prospering in the world till I die & try to pass the beam of my qualifying myself for part of my ^{Collector} All the Collectors under whom I served all the Superintendents of Police under whom Begging most humbly & respectfully to be pardoned for having intruded on your most valuable time - for I could not do otherwise with a father just

C. No. 767 From the Collector of Dibrugarh No. , dated 29-5-1906.

SUBJECT.

Application for permission to appear for the Criminal & Revenue tests, higher grade

The Collector of Dibrugarh forwarded for the order of Govt. an application from Muhammad Fakrud-din, ag. Dahsildar of Kuli-talai, for permission to appear for the Criminal and Revenue tests, Higher grade. In G.O. No. 4000 M. S. dated 26th August 1903 he was permitted to appear for the Criminal & Revenue tests, Higher grade at the examinations to be held in 1904 & 1905. He appeared for the tests in 1904 & 1905, but was not successful. He attributes his failure to pressure of official work, which prevented him from devoting sufficient time to his studies.

2. orders are solicited as to whether the permission applied for may be granted

The usual period for which persons in the applicant's position are allowed to appear for special tests is two years. Please see Secretary's note at A on page 5 of G.O. nos 273-274 Ed di 26th April 1905.

The applicant also has been allowed to appear for two years - G.O. no 400 Ed di 26th August 1903. Should he be given permission to appear for a further period of two years? We may perhaps ask Revenue.

The applicant is a Muhammadan man of 36 yrs of age with a total service of 16 years. He is a permanent Dy Sabs and Stationary Submagistrate on Rs. 120 and has passed the Metric Exⁿ, Phris Writing Test, Translation Test, Criminal and Revenue Tests in the Lower grades.

He may be allowed another chance

No objection in Rev. 15.5.06 15.5.06

The applicant is acting as Tahsildar for which post he is qualified by exam^m He wants a general permission to appear for the Rev. & Crim. Higher for which he could not ordinarily appear as he is only a Matriculate.
 He was granted permission to appear twice & failed. Till he has passed the two tests he cannot be made a Deputy Collector but in fact (he is one of my Tahsils in Trichy) he is not likely in any case to be appointed a Dy C.W. as he is not particularly good.
 I think the request should be refused.

On the other hand, the man is likely to work better as Tahs^r if he has the hope of rising to the post of Deputy Collector & from this point of view, the grant of the concession sought may be Expedient.

Hm

I don't like these exemptions
The man is only a matriculate.
But as he is a Muhammadan & qualified Mullahs are few, he may as a special case get ^{an} exemption to continue for two years.
If he can't pass in that time he must give up wasting time on exams to the detriment of his ordinary duties
