NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 425, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 16th JUNE 1906.

[Subject.—Additional accommodation in the Reformatory School.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. 2265, dated 1*st June* 1906.

In addressing this Government in the Judicial Department upon some of the recommendations contained in the Report of the Police Commission, the Government of India observed in connection with the question of reform of criminals that "the "other recommendations of the Commission under this head relate to the provision of "more school accommodation in the reformatory schools and to carrying out a more "complete segregation of old offenders." This Government in their order No. 332, Judicial, dated 20th February 1906, observed that "the views of the Director of Public "Instruction will be invited in the Educational Department on the question of provid-"ing additional accommodation in the Reformatory school." This Government Order was communicated to the Director of Public Instruction with our endorsement No. 132, dated 21st March 1906.

2. In reply, the Director reports that the school can at present accommodate 185 boys and that after the sub-jail has been removed from one of the buildings on the premises and certain necessary alterations and improvements have been effected, there will be accommodation for a total number of 250 juveniles. A new sub-jail is now under construction. Plans and estimates for alterations and improvements to the existing building are now under preparation, and a provision of Rs. 10,000 has been made under class B. Works in the Public Works budget for the current year. The matter was also referred to in paragraphs 4 and 9 of the report of the Reformatory School for 1905. On this the Public Works Department is being requested to issue early orders.

3. It is submitted that the papers may be shown to the Judicial Department.
