Resolution of the Government of India, Home Department (Education), Nos. 392-400, dated Simla, the 7th June 1906.

Read—The Home Department resolution No. 11-Pub./790-801, dated the 24th April 1891.*

The report on reformatory schools was inadvertently omitted from the statement appended to the Home Department resolution of the 24th April 1891 in which the dates were fixed for the submission of annual reports to the Government of India in the Home Department. It appears to the Governor-General in Council desirable to supply this omission in order to ensure punctuality in the preparation of the report in question, and after considering the past practice of Local Governments in the matter His Excellency in Council has decided to fix the 1st July in each year as the latest date on which the report should be submitted by Local Governments and Administrations to the Government of India.

Order.—Ordered that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Local Governments and Administrations, except the Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam and the Chief Commissioner of Coorg, for information and guidance.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 445, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 23rd JUNE 1906.

[Subject.—Submission of the report on Reformatory school to the Government of India.]

From the Government of India, dated 7th June 1906, No. 392–400.

The Government of India in their resolution No. 11, Public, 790–801, dated 24th April 1891, furnished Local Governments and Administrations with lists, showing the dates fixed for the submission of some of the annual reports. In this list the report on Reformatory schools was inadvertently omitted. The Government of India now address Local Governments in order that this omission may be supplied. That Government have now decided to fix the 1st July in each year as the latest date on which the report should be submitted by Local Governments and Administrations.

Printed with G.O., No. 376, Public, dated 12th May 1891.

2. Under the present arrangement the Reformatory school report is due with this Government from the Director of Public Instruction on the 1st May of each year. It is due with the Government of India from this Government on the 15th May in each year. The report for 1905 which was, under this arrangement, due with the Government of India on the 15 May last was despatched to that Government on the 15th June 1906. Hence it would reach the Government of India within the time now fixed by that Government.

3. It is submitted that we may allow the present arrangements to continue seeing that under it the report will reach the Government of India before 1st July in any case. This year's report was delayed by references to the Public Works Department and the Judicial Department. There was some delay in the Press also.
