Code for European Schools.

Stating that the certificate required by article 41 (a) of the — may be dispensed with in the case of existing children in orphanages and that the certificate in the case of children newly admitted should be obtained from the Magistrate of the district where the child is found and in the Presidency town from the Chief Presidency Magistrate, it being open to the certifying Magistrates to make such enquiries as they may see fit to institute to enable them to give the certificate required.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Order—No. 461, Educational, dated 28th June 1906.

Under article 41 (a) of the Code for European Schools issued under G.O., No. 220, Educational, dated 26th March 1906, for every scholar in an orphanage on whose account a grant-in-aid of boarding charges is claimed, a certificate must be produced from the Magistrate of the district to which the child belongs certifying to its destitution. A question has been raised whether this certificate is necessary in the case of children in orphanages on the date of the coming into force of the Code or whether it is necessary only in the case of children newly admitted after that date. The Government consider that the certificate may be dispensed with in the case of existing inmates but the right will be reserved to the Director to refuse a grant on behalf of any inmate should he be satisfied that such inmate is not really destitute.

2. The questions have also been raised as to—

(1) whether the certificate to be produced under the Code should be obtained from the Magistrate of the district in which a child was born or from the Magistrate of the district in which it was found;

(2) what classes of Magistrates have the power to grant the certificate; and

(3) what enquiries they are expected to make before granting certificates.

With reference to these questions the Government consider that the certificate should be obtained from the Magistrate of the district where the child is found; and in the Presidency town from the Chief Presidency Magistrate. The certifying Magistrates may make enquiries through a subordinate officer or make a reference to the Magistrate of the district where the child was born if its place of birth is known or of the district in which the parents of the child, if known, last had a permanent residence; or such other inquiries as they may see fit to institute to enable them to give the certificate required.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 461, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 28TH JUNE 1906.

[SUBJECT.—Grant of certificates to destitute children under article 41 (a) of the Code of Regulations for European schools.]

Demi-official from F. D. Bird, Esq., Acting Presidency Magistrate, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 9th June 1906.

Under paragraph 41 (a) of the Code of Regulations for European schools, published in the Gazette of the 3rd April last, the grant-in-aid of boarding charges for orphans and destitute children will not be given unless a certificate is obtained from "the Magistrate of the district" to which the child belongs, certifying to its destitution. A Roman Catholic priest appeared before me on the 8th instant and applied for such a certificate on behalf of two children named Vincent. This is the first case of the kind that has come under my notice. I asked what evidence he had to produce in support of his statement that the children were in destitute circumstances; he said their parents had both disappeared and there was not a respectable inhabitant of the Parcheri from which they had been rescued who could give evidence. He asked me to take his word for it; but, as I pointed out to him, if that were sufficient the necessity for the intervention of a Magistrate is not apparent. He represented that the new rule applies to all children already in orphanages for whom the grant is desired. I fancy that in Madras the total number must be considerable. He also said that if Magistrates insisted on a full enquiry as to antecedents, etc., the effect would probably be to empty the orphanages. I, therefore, write to ask that some instructions may be issued for the guidance of Magistrates in granting such certificates. It would also seem advisable to lay down what classes of Magistrates "the Magistrate of the district" in the rule quoted, includes. The applicant informed me that a number of similar applications will shortly be put before me; so I venture to ask for early orders. It would no doubt be a great convenience to all concerned were it ruled that the certificate by a Magistrate will be required in the case of future entrants only. May I also ask whether the word "belongs" in the rule quoted means place of birth, or place where the child was picked up or otherwise. Without some clear instructions for the guidance of all Magistrates concerned I fear there will be difficulty and delay in the grant of the certificates.

Put up Code please.

H. D. TAYLOR—13-6-06.

The Code for European schools is submitted.

2. Article 41 (a) of the Code runs as follows:—

"For every scholar on whose account a grant (boarding grant for orphans and "destitute children) is claimed a certificate must be obtained from the Magistrate of "the district to which the child belongs, certifying to its destitution.

"These certificates must be filed in the school for reference."

3. The Acting Chief Presidency Magistrate (Mr. F. D. Bird)—

(a) desires that some instructions may be issued for the guidance of Magistrates in granting the certificates referred to—whether full enquiry as to antecedents of children should be made or the word of the applicants for the certificates may be accepted;

(b) enquires what classes of Magistrates are included in the article;

(c) suggests that the certificate referred to may be required only in the case of future entrants to orphanages;

(d) enquires whether the word "belongs" in the article refers to the place of birth or to the place where a child is picked up.

4. As regards (a)—general instructions to Magistrates—when the draft Code originally came to this Government for remarks, the late Director Mr. Stuart said: (Paragraph 10 (12) of his letter on page 19 of G.O., Nos. 565, 566, dated 19th November 1903) "a certificate from the District Magistrate as to the destitute condi- "tion of a child for whom a special grant may be claimed does not seem to be necessary, "nor is an officer in his position likely to "know the antecedents of children who are "admitted to an orphanage. The Manager's "declaration seems to be sufficient."

But he makes enquiries through Tahsildars and other subordinates.

G. S. F[ORBES].

On this, however, the Honourable Member (the Hon'ble Mr. Forbes) said: (Page 4 of the notes with the above G.O.) "I should not alter article 45 (a)* as to the District "Magistrate's certificate. A Manager "may trade on these grants. The District "Magistrate may not know personally but "he can find out through the usual agency "at his command: and it is an indepen- "dent guarantee."

* Now 41 (a).

Of course the Magistrate ought to make some enquiry. Otherwise his certificate is useless.

C. A. SOUTER—15-6-06.

Mr. Bird may be informed in terms of the last sentence of the above note.

5. As to (b)—the grade of Magistrates—it does not appear that the wording of the rule admits of any doubt. In the mufassal it is the "District" Magistrate. In Madras it is apparently the Chief Presidency Magistrate.

Yes: but surely the District Magistrate and Chief Presidency Magistrate may delegate the enquiry to some subordinate.

C. A. SOUTER—15-6-06.

H. D. TAYLOR—15-6-06.

6. In regard to (c)—whether the certificate should be required only in the case of future entrants—it seems desirable to insist on it in the case of children already in the orphanage. The grant allowed by the Code is Rs. 8 against the present Rs. 4-8-0 (in Hill schools, Rs. 5-8-0)—please see paragraph 3 of G.O., No. 220, Educational, dated 26th March 1906.

7. As regards (d)—whether the certificates should be of the Magistrate of the place where the child was born or of the place where it was picked up—it does not appear that any hard and fast rule can be laid down. Ordinarily it may perhaps be of the Magistrate where a child is picked up.

The place of birth may not be known.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

H. D. TAYLOR.

I think that the present inmates may be accepted without further enquiry. They have been already accepted by the department and grants (although at a lower rate) given on their behalf. The certificate required under the new Code would seem from its very nature to be one that should be obtained when the child first enters the orphanage. There will be great difficulty in many cases in procuring such a certificate now. The intention is to give a greater measure of help to Managers who have hitherto had great difficulty in making ends meet and in securing the extra funds required. It seems hardly fair to couple this offer of further help with such a restriction. The community and therefore Government has already incurred a debt of gratitude to these Managers for what they have done in the past. It would be an act of grace to accept the existing inmates as destitute and in accordance with the whole spirit of the present proposals to give more help.

2. As a matter of interpretation of rules it is putting a very slight strain upon them to consider the requirement of a certificate for each existing inmate as giving retrospective effect to the new rules.

3. As to the future there should not be much difficulty. The existence of destitution should be readily demonstrable at the time to the Magistrate of the locality where the child is picked up or at any rate to some Magistrate. The child may be said, in most cases at any rate, to belong to the place where he is "picked up". The antecedents are of little consequence. The child is destitute and no one comes forward to take care of it. This is not London or a large English town where deliberate plans to get rid of a child might be common.

4. The motive which induces a Manager to maintain an orphanage at all may be trusted to lead him to reserve his accommodation for the worst cases. The inspecting officer would soon detect it if things were not as they should be.

5. I doubt whether any general instructions to Magistrates are necessary in regard to future cases, at any rate it might be well to wait and see if difficulties arise and deal with each case upon its merits for the present. If Government approve of my opening remark, may I ask for an order to that effect.

A. G. BOURNE—18-6-06.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

The certificate may be dispensed with in cases of inmates on 1st April 1906 when the Code came into force.

2. The Magistrate should be the Magistrate of the district in which the child is picked up: but the Magistrate may make inquiries through some subordinate officer. Frequently the place of birth may not be known, but, where it is known, a reference can always be made to the Magistrate of the district in which the birth took place, or of the district in which the parents of the child—if known—last had a permanent residence.

G. S. F[ORBES].

H. D. TAYLOR—18-6-06.

The certificate may be dispensed with in case of existing inmates, the right however being reserved to refuse a grant in the case of any of these should it be shown that he or she does not possess the qualification. We can accept them without further inquiry, but I think we should reserve the right mentioned.

2. So far as the Presidency town is concerned, the Chief Presidency Magistrate will give the certificate, but of course he may make such inquiry as he pleases to satisfy himself. If the labour should prove heavy we can afterwards consider whether any Presidency Magistrate and the Commissioner of Police may not also be authorised.

3. So in the districts though the District Magistrate is to give the formal certificate he necessarily must get information through subordinates or otherwise.
