Memo. 296 d/28-6-06.

The Secretary of State has appointed Mr. D. O. Hodges to be member of the Indian Civil Service in the vacancy caused by the retirement of Mr. J. B. Bulderbeck. He is expected to arrive in India within a fortnight.

The A.S. is requested to be so good as to state whether there is any objection to the posting of Mr. Hodges on arrival as Vice Principal 'Teachers' College, Saidapet, which appointment also is now vacant and to his being placed on special duty under article 78(b) of the C.S.R. with the D.P. immediately after joining that appointment.

By 27/6/06 The favour of an early reply is requested.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

In reply to Memo: No.296, dated 28th June 1906, I have the honour to state I have not seen Mr. Hodges agreement but that the general tenor of the agreements of Officers of the Indian Educational service would not prevent the proposed appointment. I think, therefore, that there would be no objection to Mr. T.O. Hodges being posted temporarily as Vice-Principal, Teachers College, on his arrival. It is of course open to Government to place an Officer of the Indian Educational service on special duty, as it is to place an Officer of any other Department on special duty, subject to the provisions of article 78 (b) Civil Service Regulations.

As no budget provision for the special duty has been made under "22 Education-Direction", the necessary funds to meet the extra cost should now be provided by re-appropriation from savings under "Government Colleges-Professional".

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

L. Dobbie.

Accountant-General.

Copy of demi-official letter from A.Y.C. Campbell Esquire, I.C.S., Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor, to the Hon'ble Mr. A.G. Bourne, D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction, ~~xxx~~ through the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 15th June 1906:--

Despatched 16/6/06

In reply to your letter No.106, dated the 10th June, I am desired to say that His Excellency approves of your proposal to send Nagoji Rao back to Kumbakonam on or about 9th July till such time as definite arrangements are made for filling the Principalship of the College there.

2. As regards Mr. Hodges' appointment, His Excellency is of opinion that it would be advisable to come to no definite decision until after he has been here for a time and it is seen what manner of man he is.

3. His Excellency also approves of the proposal that Janakirama Aiyar be temporarily placed in charge of the duties of the Inspector without prejudice to his own.

My dear Taylor

In my D.O. to the Private Secretary of 16th June what I proposed practically amounted to this:— That Mr. Hedges should be ^{provisionally} considered as destined for the College at Kumbakonam but should not be appointed until after he had been in the country for a short time as after seeing him I might wish to make some other proposal.

His Excellency expressed the opinion that it would be advisable to come

2
to no definite decision until after Mr. Hodges had been here for a time and it was seen what manner of man he was. This was practically my proposal. The latter was put somewhat vaguely because I was uncertain what would be permissible under the regulations. In the meantime I ordered a reference to be made in general terms to the Accountant General. I enclose the reply.

It appears that Mr. Hodges must be posted to and join one of the Indian Educational appointments on arrival or must go without pay.

7 3
There are two appointments substantially vacant. Professor of English, Presidency College (Duncan acts) and Vice Principal, Teacher's College (pay 500-750-J. Subramanya Rizer acts). Perhaps the best way to give effect to His Excellency's intentions would be ~~for~~ to post Mr. Hodges as Vice Principal of the Teacher's College, let him join and hand over charge again the same or next day and then be on special duty with the ~~H. P.~~ for a week or thereabouts - I could then form an opinion and submit a recommendation The special duty arrangements would be regulated by ^h Arts 78 + 81 of the C.S.R.

With the approval of Government
I could carry out these arrangements "in anticipation of sanction" which might then be accorded with retrospective effect. This would allow of the sanction referring to what had actually occurred

I should probably depute Mr. Bridges to visit some of the Educational Institutions in Madras and to join me if possible for a few days in Camp, but I cannot make definite arrangements until the date of his arrival is known. I would invite him

To stay with me if possible.

Yours sincerely

A. S. Dawkins

Sir

Your Dd yesterday enquiring whether an officer appointed in England to the Indian Ed Service may, for some time after his arrival in India, not be posted to any particular app't & yet may draw his pay. I am directed to say that the reply to your question is in the negative.
Officers of the Ind. Ed Service are recruited to fill certain specified Ed app'ts and on arrival in India must be posted to & join one of such app'ts. There is no such thing as subsistence allowance for officers of the Indian Ed Service.

To the Personal Asst to the D.P.I.

Yours truly
N. S. Sgharwan
Asst Acct Genl

When is Mr. Hodges expected to arrive?
 Financial may be asked whether the B.P.D. proposed is reasonable i.e. to settle Mr. Hodges on V.P.
 Teacher College and then to place him at once, after joining on special duty for a short period - until the B.P.D. is at the pay of V.P. Teacher College - Is it 500-50-750?

W. Hodges

Mr. Hodges is expected to leave England in the third week in June. G.O. No. 375 Dtd 30th May 1906.
 He may therefore be expected in Madras by the 14th or 15th of July.

2. The pay of the Vice-Principal of the Teachers' College is now Rs 500-50-750. G.O. No 171 Dtd 12th March 1906.
 The Vice-Principalship is ~~however~~ a special appointment with the Indian Educational Service. But if there is any account-objection ^{on this score} to the Director's proposal Mr. Hodges may join his own appointment and be then immediately placed on special duty.

Will you please remark on the proposal?

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT

Chief Secretary

The proposed ^{arrangement} is not likely to meet with the acceptance of the A.G. & will be rather difficult to defend if he forced us up to India about it. It would be rather too close an evasion of the rules. Could not the Director arrange for the Teachers' College work to go on all the time. Hodges joined there as Vice-Principal & did no work. ^{short} Were for a spell? He could then carry out the DP's programme.

CWG
23/6/06

I don't think the A.G. will raise any objection. This quite reasonable that Mr. B. should want to see him before parting. The acct general cannot object if Mr. Hodges is placed on special duty to inspect Schools with the Director. But I need not object beyond pointing out the possibility of the A.G. making objection.

The Accountant General was asked to state whether there was any objection to the posting of Mr. J.D. Hodges, appointed to the Indian Educational Service in succession to Mr. J.B. Bilderbeck, as Vice-Principal, Teachers College, Laidapet, and to his being placed on special duty

The A.G. reports that there is no objection. The Director may be asked to submit a minute and to issue instructions to Mr. Hodges to reach him on arrival.

He may also be asked to submit the necessary reappropriation etc for the special duty.

The period for which Mr. Hodge is to be placed on special duty has not been stated. The S.D.O. in his S.O. at the head of the note suggests "a week or thereabouts" but that would give him but little chance of learning the manner - custom of the country or of respecting institutions in Madras. It is submitted that the period should be for one month at least.
