Copy of a letter from Miss Scott Coward, Superintendent, Presidency Training School for Mistresses, Madras dated 2nd July 1906.

I have the honour to forward herewith a medical certificate that I am unable to return to duty on the reopening of the Presidency Training School on July 9th not having yet recovered from the effects of the enteric fever from which I suffered in April last.

I beg to express my regret for any inconvenience caused thereby. I had not anticipated or been warned that my recovery was likely to be so slow.
