ENDORSEMENT.

Rao Bahadur C. Nagoji rao pantulu garu is eligible for privilege leave for two months and three days only under articles 260 & 275 of the Civil Service Regulations, provided his case is considered to be one of urgent necessity.

No urgent necessity is shown in the case. Mr Nagoji Rao has only just been appointed to Kumbakonam. Further change is undesirable.

2. Mr. Nagoji Rao now applies for privilege leave for 2 months + 5 days (from date of relief at Kumbakonam). The Director has recommended him for the leave. The Accountant-General has endorsed the application with the remark that Mr. Nagoji Rao is eligible for privilege leave for 2 months + 3 days, that is, 2 days less than what he has applied for. Even this leave, the A.G. remarks, can only be granted "provided his case is considered to be one of urgent necessity".

3. The Secretary has made the following remarks in this connection —.
"No urgent necessity is shown in this case and Mr.
" Nagoji Rao has only just been appointed to Kumbakonam.
" Further change is undesirable."

4. It is for orders as to whether a reply may be given on the lines of the above remarks. ~~The~~

· The leave is required from date of relief at Kumbakonam vide Column 5 of the application - page 4 of current. It is not known when this will be. Mr. Hodges must have now arrived: he will be on special duty for one month if not more and then it has to be decided whether he is to remain at the Teachers' College, Saidapet, for the present or is to go to Kumbakonam or the Presidency College. The application may perhaps lie over awaiting further developments.

But what does A.G. mean by saying "provided that his case ~~was~~ is one of urgent necessity?"

There was some trouble about this officer's leave - or rather return to duty from leave last year. Put up those papers please

H.D.
20-7-06

Under article 271 C.S.R. privilege leave is admissible to officers serving in departts in which regular vacations are allowed only in case of urgent necessity. M.R.Ry Nagoji Rao is however likely to revert to an appointment (his permanent appointment) in which no vacation is allowed, on his relief at Kumbakonam

What authority have you for this statement?

[illegible]

Submitted that all that was meant was that in the ordinary course he reverts to his permanent appointment on relief at Kumbakonam.

Yes

The trouble last year was about M.R.Ry Williams Pillai - please see G.O. No 656 Edl dt 4th October 1905.

the 55 years rule on 26th March 1907, and therefore appears to be anxious to avail himself of privilege leave while he can.

2. He has however only recently been posted to Kumbakonam, because he has been in charge of that College before, and because it was considered undesirable, in view of the numerous changes that have recently taken place in the personnel of the staff of that College to appoint an entire stranger.

3. Mr. Nagoji Rao cannot at present be granted leave consistently with the public interests and he may be told that, for the present, his application cannot be entertained

In order to satisfy the certificate attached to a P.L. application, Mr Nagoji Rao, who retires in the ordinary course on 26th March, should be at his post by 26th Decr., or about 5 months from this date. The leave applied for is for 2 months 30 dy. ∴ the latest date on which he can take it is 3 months hence. Please draft for approval, adopting 3 months hence as date of resubmission instead of 4 months
