GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from A. R. CUMMING, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Collector of Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 20th July 1906.
No.—Ref. No. 737-Gl.

A post of quit-rent kanakapillai in the Madras Collectorate has fallen vacant and the vacany was in due course advertised in the Fort. St. George Gazette; but in spite of all endeavours it has been found impossible to secure the services of a qualified man for the post. I have, therefore, the honour to apply for the exemption of one S. Mangapati Nayudu, attender in the Revenue Board's office (Separate Revenue), from the examination rules with a view to his appointment as quit-rent kanakapillai. He has passed the Lower Secondary Examination and the Commercial Correspondence test and is therefore, I consider, quite fit to discharge the duties of kanakapillai.

Order—No. 530, Educational, dated 10th August 1906.

The Collector of Madras is informed that S. Mangapathi Nayudu requires no exemption for appointment as quit-rent kanakapillai. Kanakapillais are in inferior service and at present there is no qualifying test for admission to that service.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 530, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 10TH AUGUST 1906.

[SUBJECT.—Permanent Exemption from the examination rules of a quit-rent kanakapillai in the Madras City.]

From the Collector of Madras, dated 20*th July* 1906, No. 737.

A post of quit-rent kanakapillai in the Madras Collectorate has fallen vacant and the vacancy was in due course advertised in the Fort St. George Gazette, but in spite of all endeavours, it has been found impossible to secure the services of a qualified man for the post. So the Collector of Madras requests that Government will be pleased to exempt one S. Mangapati Nayudu, an attender in the office of the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue), from the Examination rules with a view to his appointment as quit-rent kanakapillai. The applicant has passed the Lower Secondary examination and the Commercial Correspondence test. The Collector therefore considers that he is quite fit to discharge the duties |of kanakapillai. The lowest pay of a kanakapillai in the Madras Collectorate is Rs. 18 per mensem. So the sanction of Government is necessary for the appointment of the applicant as kanakapillai, under article 1 of the Public Service notification.

2. Orders are solicited as to whether the Collector's recommendation may be approved and the draft placed below issued with the concurrence of the Revenue Department.

P.K.M.—31-7-06.

Kanakapillais appear to be inferior servants—please see the entry under A—General (2) in column I of the table on page 5 of G.O., No. 757, Educational, dated 21st December 1904. If so, the exemption applied for is not necessary as there is no qualifying test at present for inferior appointments—vide article 1 of the present Public Service notification which applies only to apppintments on Rs. 15 and upwards in superior service. The Revenue Department may, however, be consulted on the point before the Board is informed that no exemption is required.

P. T. THARYAN—31-7-06.

C. G. MACKAY—1-8-06.

I recollect that there was a special case of a similar nature last year, in which the question of general exemption of these kanakapillais was considered and vetoed. Look up those papers please.

In the present case the exemption applied for may be granted. The Collector certifies that he has been unable to procure a qualified man.

H. D. TAYLOR—2-8-06.

Please see G.O., No. 153, Educational, dated 14th March 1905.

2. Submitted, however, that the question raised by the office in the present case is whether exemption is any longer required. If the post of kanakapillai is in the superior service exemption is required; if it is in inferior service no exemption is required.

In the Public Service notification which issued under G.O., No. 757, Educational, dated 21st December 1904, kanakapillais were included under inferior servants—vide page 5 of the Government Order.

3. In March 1905 exemption from the Primary examination was necessary, but in G.O., No. 409, Educational, dated 15th June 1905, that examination was abolished as a qualifying test for admission to Government service.

P. T. Tharyan—2-8-06.

C. G. Mackay—3-8-06.

It may be held that exemption is no longer necessary and that kanakapillais are in inferior service.
