Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Accountant-General).

Dated—the 25th July 1906.

the scale also noted on the margin.† Subsequently, however, Government was pleased to accept the desirability of employing Eurasian Headmistresses for girls' schools, and in so doing the pay of the Headmistress of the Vellore School was altered from Rs. 30 into Rs. 50. The sanctioned staff thus consisted of only six teachers, one of them being a sewing mistress. The Inspectress reports that the appointment of an additional teacher is absolutely necessary, the five teachers doing the work of seven standards and the infant class containing 42 children requiring to be divided into two sections. I have the honour therefore to request that Government may be pleased to sanction an additional teacher on Rs. 10 with effect from 1st March next.

2. A proposition statement providing for this additional teacher is submitted, and if it is sanctioned the necessary provision will be made in the budget estimates for 1907-1908.
