From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. A.G. Bourne, D.Sc., F.R.S.,

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction, Madras,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.
(Through the Accountant-General)

Sir,

I have the honour to submit an application for privilege leave for 3 months on full pay supported by a Medical certificate from M.R.Ry. Rao Bahadur M. Rangachariyar, Avergal, M.A., Professor of Sanskrit and Comparative Philology, Presidency College, ~~Madras~~ and Curator, Oriental Manuscripts Library. The Accountant-General to whom the application was referred states--vide the enclosed copy of his letter No. G.814/5903, dated 18th August 1906--that M.R.Ry. Rangachariyar's claim to privilege leave on full pay is inadmissible and that if it is desired to grant him full pay during his privilege leave, his case should be referred to the Government of India for a ruling. In these circumstances, I beg to leave the question of his leave allowance to be settled by Government and

and to recommend that he be granted privilege leave for 3 months either under article 271 or article 272 of the Civil Service Regulations as Government may decide, the leave to run from 31st July 1906, the date on which he ceased to attend College. It is true that Rangachariyar has still been performing the duties of Curator, Oriental Manuscripts Library, but it does not seem possible to fix two dates for his leave, one with regard to his College appointment and the other with respect to the Curator's office.

2. No declaration has been attached to the application for leave. I am calling for it and shall submit it on receipt.

3. I am submitting separately proposals for filling up M.R.Ry. Rangachariyar's place during his absence.

Sir,

I have the honour to apply for three months privilege leave on full pay. As curator, I have had to forego the annual summer vacation already on five ~~four~~ occasions since my appointment to the office in July 1901; and under article 272 of the Civil Service Regulations I am entitled to draw full pay during my privilege leave. In 1891 when I was on special duty at the Arkonam Telegraph Workshops, I had to forego one vacation and was allowed in consideration thereof privilege leave on full pay for one month from the 5th July 1891. The late professor M. Seshagiri Sastri, my predecessor in the Office of Curator, had, I learn, privilege leave on full pay for over a month about October 1897.

To

The Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

Sir,

With reference to your endorsement No. 5803 dated 7th August 1906 on the application of M.R.Ry. M. Rangachariar Avergal for privilege leave for 3 months on full pay under Article 272 of the Civil Service Regulations, I have the honour to state that the rules do not provide for the case of an officer who besides the duties of his regular appointment in which vacations are allowed has collateral duties in the case of which no vacation is provided for. In the present case there is no question that the College was closed and that so far as regards the College work which is the main work of the officer in question, he enjoyed the vacation. The words 'Remain at his post on duty' used in Article 272 of the Civil Service Regulations must be held, I think, as referring to the appointment in connection with which the vacation is allowed, and the Professor was not required to remain on duty during the vacation in connection with his College work. Under these

these circumstances if it is desired to give the Professor full pay during his privilege leave, his case should be referred to the Government of India for a ruling.

I have the honour to be,

SUBJECT.

Application from M.R.Ry M. Rangachariyar, Professor of Sanskrit & Comparative Philology, Presidency College and Curator, Oriental Manuscripts Library, for privilege for three months on full pay.

Pages 4 & 5 of current.

The Director submits an application supported by a medical certificate for privilege leave for three months on full pay from M.R.Ry M. Ranga Chariyar, Professor of Sanskrit and Comparative Philology, Presidency College, and Curator, Oriental Manuscripts Library. As Mr. Rangachariyar is employed in a departt in which there is regular vacation he is not under Article 271 C.S.R. eligible for privilege leave on full pay but he may be granted such leave on half pay provided the case is one of urgent necessity.

Mr. Rangachariyar however submits that in his capacity as Curator, Oriental Manuscripts Library he ~~has~~ has had to forego his annual summer vacation on five occasions since his appointment in July 1901 and that under Article 272 C.S.R. he is entitled to full pay during privilege leave. He quotes as precedent the privilege leave granted him in 1891 - G.O. R. No 93 dd 10th July 1891 - and also the privilege granted to his predecessor the late M. Seshagiri Sastriyar - G.O. No 1464 dd 29th November 1897. The G.Os in both cases are in Madras & have been called for. The abstracts do not show whether full pay was allowed or not.

Art 272. "The preceding art. does not apply to the case of an officer, who is, by general or special order issued by competent authority, prevented in any year from availing himself of the vacation." C.

What orders are these? D.

His letter to D.P.I. page 6 of current.

2. The Accountant General maintains that "the rules of

E 10 9

" not provide for the case of an officer who,
" besides the duties of his regular appointmen
" in which vacations are allowed, has collater
" ~~work~~ duties in the case of which no vacation
" provided for." He also observes ~~that~~ in Mr.
Rangachariyar's case " there is no question
" that the College closed and ~~that~~ so far as regard
" the College work which is the main work of
" the officer in question, he enjoyed the vacation
The words "remain at his post on duty" used in Article 272 of the C.S.R. must be held, the
A.G. thinks, as referring to the appointment in connection with which the vacation is allowed
If therefore full pay is to be given to Mr.
Rangachariyar during his privilege leave the A.G. ~~[illegible]~~ suggests that the sanction of the Govt. of India should be obtained.

(Does this officer get extra pay as Curator?) — answered below

Page 8 of current.

The A.G. certifies ~~that~~ he is eligible for privilege leave on half pay provided his case
is considered to be one of urgent necessity.

3. In the analogous case of Mr. R. Ll. Jones who is Professor of Physics, Presidency College, and Meteorological Reporter to the Madras
Govt. a reference was made to the Govt. of India whether he was eligible for privilege leave on full pay - para. 5 of letter no 620 Revenue
C. dt 6th May 1905. In para. 2 of their reply
B. with G.O. No 928 Revenue dt 4th July 1905 the Govt. of India said that the reference would be separately answered. The only further communication from India ~~on~~ on the subject appears to have been a letter about the re-organization of the meteorological departt. This letter is being printed in Madras and the Revenue departt is not sure whether the question raised by this first has been disposed of in that letter. That departt may perhaps be formally asked as at A.

3/4 11 10

4. M.R.Ry Rangachariyar gets no separate allowance as Curator, Oriental Manuscripts Library.

Is Mr Rangachariyar Ex-officio curator?

Submitted yes - vide orders in item 193 in G.O. No 36 Fin. dt 10th January 1887 - page 13.

~~The fact that Mr Rangachariyar gets no pay separately as curator~~

Secy.

The charge of the Oriental Manuscripts Library is considered part of the duties of the Professor of Sanskrit. The professor is therefore detained in Madras during the vacation which he partly enjoys & partly does not. The ordinary rules do not apply. Perhaps we may ask Revenue as at A.

Mr. Rangachariyar's case is not quite the same as that of Mr Jones. The latter's appointment as Meteorological Reporter on a separate allowance is on a different footing from that of Mr Rangachariyar who holds the collateral appointment of Curator O.M.S. Library without additional allowance.

But there seems hardly to be a case to go to India upon for a grant of full pay during privilege leave.

Mr. Rangachariar's work as Curator has not been uniformly satisfactory ∴ leave on half pay may be granted - from 31st July.
