Sir,

With reference to the Government Notification No 114 published in page 65 Part I. B of the Fort St. George Gazette dated 6th February 1906 granting me leave on private affairs for 2 months under Article 337 of the C. S. R, I beg to place the following facts for your kind consideration.

2. On a reference to my service book it will be seen that I entered Government service on 21st June 1879 and from that date up to 16th January 1906 I have not taken any leave other than casual except the privilege leave for 1 month and 24 days from 21st November 1904 to 13th January 1905 (both days inclusive) vide please Government Notification No. 49 published in Part I B of the Fort St George Gazette dated 28th March 1905. This leave had to be availed of by me as I had to take my boy to Kasauli for treatment in the Pasteur Institute for Hydrophobia.

3. In January 1906, I fell seriously ill and I had to take leave for 2 months from 17th January to 16th March. Under a misapprehension of the rules I thought I was not eligible for privilege leave and so I applied for 2 months' furlough. I was granted leave on private affairs as furlough was not admissible under article 338 (iii) of the C.S.R.

4. I now understand that I was eligible for privilege leave for the period as under the rules privilege leave for 2 months and 15 days was due to me on the 17th January 1906. Appended is a statement showing the date of my first appointment to Government service and the several kinds of leave (other than casual) availed of by me.

5. I therefore beg to request you will be so good as to recommend to the Director of Public Instruction for commuting the 2 months' leave on private affairs into privilege leave under article 232 of the C.S.R.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
K. R. Duraiswami Aiyar

ENDORSEMENT.

On 17th January 1906, M.R.Ry K.R. Duraiswami aiyer avargal was eligible for privilege leave for nineteen days only. The only leave with allowances for two months admissible to him on that date was leave on private affairs.

The disability as regards furlough may be avoided only if the leave on private affairs for two months from 17th January 06, is commuted into extraordinary leave without allowances, under articles 232 & note 1 to 339 of the Civil Service Regulations. If the commutation is sanctioned, the leave allowances drawn for the period will be recovered.

C. No. 1195 From the D.P.I. No. 4684, dated 19-7-1906.

SUBJECT.

Request of M.R.Ry K.R. Duraiswami Aiyar, Assistant Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, that the leave on private affairs for 2 months granted to him in January 1906 may be converted into privilege leave.

(Assistant Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division)

M.R.Ry K.R. Duraiswami Aiyar, was granted privilege leave on half pay from the 21st November 1905 to the 13th January 1905 - G.O. No 172 Edl dt 28th March 1905. He fell ill in January 1906 and as he was not then eligible for furlough as an interval of 18 months had not elapsed since his return from privilege leaving over six months (article 338 C.S.R.) he applied for and was granted leave on private affairs for two months from the 17th January 1906 - G.O. No 24 Edl dt 6th February 1906.

H.

Ca.

Paras. 4 & 5 of his letter - page 4 of current.

2. He now says that he was at the time eligible for privilege leave for 2 months and requests that the leave on private affairs granted to him may be converted into privilege leave. His request is supported by the D.P.I. for the reason that Duraiswami Aiyar will otherwise be debarred under article 338(i) C.S.R. from applying for furlough which he has not hitherto enjoyed until after the expiry of 10 years from the 17th March 1906 - the date of his return from leave on private affairs. By this time he will have retired from Service.

Page 8 of current

3. The Accountant General however reports that on 17th January 1906 Duraiswami Aiyar was eligible for privilege leave for 19 days only, and that the disability as regards furlough may be avoided only if the leave on private affairs is commuted into Extraordinary leave without allowances.

4. It is not clear how the A.G. makes out the eligibility for privilege leave for 19 days only. Duraiswamy Aiyar returned from privilege leave for 1 month & 24 days on 13th January 1905: he seems to have then had 1 month & 6 days to his credit still and from 13th January 1905 to 16th January 1906 he seems to have earned an additional month's privilege leave. He should thus have had 2 months and 6 days to his credit on 17th January 1906. Accepting however the A.G's report (as correct) the only course now open is to ask Duraiswamy Aiyar whether he is prepared to commute two leave on private affairs which he had into extraordinary leave without allowances. The Director may perhaps be requested to do this. [illegible]
I.S.P.
31/7/06

The probability is that for part of the time on which he calculates his privilege leave, Duraiswamy was holding a professorial post to which vacation attached. From the History of Service p.69. he was apparently Lecturer in Kumbakonam College, without any permanent appt. up to 1st Nov 04. He was appointed permanently as Asst. Insp. of Schools on 28th June 05. He is also shown as having had Privilege for 21st Nov. to 13th Dec 05 — but the entry appears to be incorrect.

(I recently called the attention of the Accountant to the inaccuracy of the entries in the History of Service, in the case of Ed. Officers)

I was not aware before that never asking service counted for pruelege leave.
He Sy. seems right. Hon Attaullah apparently enjoyed the vacation in 1905-
. can only count for pruelege leave up to Jay 06 the period from the close of vacation
& his appointment a Asst Inspector on 28 June 05.

He says he informed an Al A. officer note. DPI says she also to check that objn are heavy letter & this is cancelled into Sy to make the history of Services complete. His attention may be called to this case. At present the History, in respect of Ed officers is useless for purpose of reference

The draft memo. placed below is submitted for approval.

2. It is submitted that under article 271 (CSR) privilege leave is admissible even in professional post - provided there is urgent necessity for it and only half pay is drawn.

3. The history of services shows only services in gazetted appointments. (Duraiswami Aiyar's) total service on 1st January 1905 was 25 years 6 months & 10 days - page 5 of the book of Educational officers. All the while he was acting in the Provincial Service he had a permanent appointment in the Subordinate Service.

That permanent appt.
Dr Lane does not. He keeps on taken details for seniority of gelb seniority. Total previous approved service taken Sd

4. Action is being separately taken on the last para. of the Secretary's note.

PH 7/8/06 Sec'y a reminder to the D.P.I. in regard to the last point was issued by me this morning.
