From

K. Sundararama Aiyar,
Lecturer, Kumbakonam College,
(on furlough).

To

J. J. Logan, Esq.,
Director of Public Instruction
Madras.

(Thrs' The Principal, Kumbakonam College)

Sir,

I beg to bring to your notice that, owing to the failure of Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co., I have lost almost all my savings. I have less than 3 years more of service before me to enable me to save something for my old age and for my family. I beg, therefore, you will permit me to cancel the rest of my furlough and to return to duty immediately.

I entered the Department in 1877, and have always endeavoured to serve it honestly and diligently. I fully rely on your sympathy and help for me in my trouble.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

your most obedient servant,

K. Sundararaman.

Lecturer, Kumbakonam
College
(on furlough)

No 309, dated 23rd October 1906

Forwarded for favourable consideration. There is no objection to Mr Sundararama Aiyar being permitted to return to duty immediately.

C. No. 1786 From the 599 No. 8000, dated 30-10-1906.

SUBJECT.

The application for permission to return to duty immediately of K. Sundararama Aiyar, Lecturer, Kumbakonam College who was granted furlough for 16 months from 6th August 1906.

A In G.O. No 90 Vol. 17th April 1906, K. Sundararama Aiyar, Lecturer, Kumbakonam College was granted furlough for 16 months. He availed himself of it from the 6th August 1906. He now requests permission to return to duty immediately as he has lost almost all his savings owing to the failure of Messrs Arbuthnot & Co. The Principal of the College Mr. F.O. Hodges has no objection and the Director recommends the grant of the request.

In consequential versions please see the note in the separate file. It involves the revision of Mr. R.R. Padiyathle Pethi, Asst. and Inspector Tiruvelli St. as Sub Asst. Periyakulam. This is rather a special case as Mr. R.R. Padiyathle Pethi is so near achievement, but if the principle is to be accepted in every case it will rather contravert existing arrangements.

Offici have not voted on the rules governing the cancellation of leave and the article of the C.S.P. applicable

H.D.

7. 11. 06

Submitted that under Article 223 of the C.S.P. "An Officer may not, without the permission of the Authority, which granted him leave, return to duty more than fourteen days before the end of Long Leave". The sanction of Govt. is therefore necessary for Sundara nama Aiyar's returning to duty about three months after availing himself of the furlough for 16 months granted to him by Govt. on 9.12.00 d. 17-4-06

2. Under Article 225 he may be asked to produce a medical certificate ^{before being permitted to return to duty,} if the furlough was taken on account of ill health. but in applying for furlough he simply stated that he wanted some rest and not that he was unwell. This article is not therefore applicable in his case.

3. Under Article 197 Govt. have free discretion to revoke leave of absence of any description.

4. When a person is permitted to return to duty before the expiration of his leave the unexpired portion of the leave is cancelled as a matter of course. There is no special provision about this.
