M. Bhaskara Rao's prize.

Accepting the offer of M.R.Ry. M. Subba Rao Pantulu to endow a prize in connection with the Government College at Rajahmundry, and calling for a formal application under the Charitable Endowments Act for vesting the endowment in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and for settling the scheme for the administration of the property.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper:—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. T. T. Logan, B.A., Acting Director of Public Instruction.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Madras, the 6th November 1906.
No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 6470.

I have the honour to submit copies of letters, dated 7th April 1906 and 14th July 1906, from M.R.Ry. Maidavolu Subba Rao Pantulu Garu, B.A., Huzur Sarishtadar of the Guntúr Collectorate and an old student of the Government College, Rajahmundry, offering an endowment of Rs. 200 for instituting a prize in connection with the College in memory of his deceased brother Bhaskara Rao who was also a student of the College and to request that the offer be accepted and that the Accountant-General instructed to receive the money. The prize will be awarded under the rules mentioned below:—

Terms of award.

(1) The prize which shall be in the form of books shall be of the value of Rs. 7 to be awarded by the Principal, Rajahmundry College for the best essay in Telugu written by a student of the College.

(2) It shall be open for competition to students on the rolls of the College.

(3) A committee of three members shall in the month of February every year be appointed by the Principal for purposes of this prize.

(4) The prize shall be awarded by the Principal to the student recommended by the Committee in the month of April every year.

(5) If there be two or more essays of equal merit in a year the competitor who shows greater aptitude for sports will be eligible for the prize.

(6) If no award be made for the prize in any year the value thereof shall be added to the capital.

(7) The Principal shall have power to modify or vary the conditions of award Nos. 3 and 4 above if circumstances render change necessary.

Terms of endowment.

(1) The endowment consists of Rs. 200 assigned by the donor M.R.Ry. Maidavolu Subba Rau Pantulu Garu in the name of his deceased brother Bhaskara Rao Pantulu.

(2) It shall be invested in the $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Government securities in the name of the Principal, Government College, Rajahmundry.

(3) The annual interest therefrom accruing shall be devoted to awarding a prize for the best Telugu essay written by a student of the said college.

(4) Should a change be deemed necessary the Government shall have power to direct the income to any other educational purpose, in memory of the donor's deceased brother.

2. These rules were framed under the orders of the Principal, Rajahmundry College, in consultation with M.R.Ry. Maidavolu Subba Rao Pantulu Garu. It will be seen from his letter of the 14th July last that the latter has no objection to the endowment being vested in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments under Act VI of 1890. The Principal, Rajahmundry College, and the Tahsildar of Rajahmundry may be appointed as the trustees of the endowment.

Letter—from Maidavolu Subba Rao Pantulu Garu, B.A., Huzur Sarishtadar, Guntúr Collectorate.
To—the Principal, Rajahmundry College.
Dated—Guntúr, the 7th April 1906.

I took my degree from your College. A brother of mine while reading in that College died sometime ago. For sometime past I have been thinking of awarding a prize in his name. I think the time has now come if you help me in establishing such a prize. I have a couple of hundred rupees with me. I am prepared to place them at the disposal of Government. In Arbuthnot's it fetches Rs. 10 a year. In Government promissory notes it fetches Rs. 7 a year. I request that for this, a prize may be awarded every year for the best Telugu essay. The successful man should be a moderately good gymnast. He need not be the first in sports but it is enough if he evinces a good aptitude for physical exercise. The subject of the essay should be intimated to me beforehand and the essays written by the several competitors should be forwarded to me after their valuation. The selection of the subject, the judging of the merit of the essays will be left to a committee of the Telugu Pandits in Rajahmundry. If necessary the sanction of Government may be obtained for receiving the money from me and investing it. The prize should be open to all the students reading in Rajahmundry If you suggest any modifications I am prepared to consider them. So long as I live I reserve to myself the power of applying the funds to other subjects connected with the College.

Hoping that you will not despise the poor offer.

(2)

Letter—from Maidavolu Subba Rao Pantulu Garu, B.A., Huzur Sarishtadar, Guntúr Collectorate.
To—the Principal, Rajahmundry College.
Dated—Guntúr, the 14th July 1906.

In returning herewith your endorsement No. 318, dated 10th July 1906, I beg leave to state that the terms of endowment and of award have my approval.

2. I think that Act VI of 1890 (India) Charitable Endowments Act applies to this endowment, that Government securities should be in the name of the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and that the previous sanction of Government is necessary to accept the amount from me. If so clause 2 of the "Terms of Endowment" requires modification. As soon as the necessary sanction is obtained through the Director of Public Instruction and intimated to me I shall remit the amount to you. It is lying idle with me. Awaiting your instructions to remit the amount.

Order—No. 746, Educational, dated 17th November 1906.

The Director of Public Instruction will be requested to inform M.R.Ry. M. Subba Rao Pantulu Garu that the Government will be glad to accept his offer to endow a prize in connection with the Government College at Rajahmundry. He should make a formal application under sub-section (1) (b) of section 6 of the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890, to vest the property in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and under sub-section (1) of section 5 to settle the scheme as proposed in the Director's letter, for the administration of the property. It is noted that M.R.Ry. M. Subba Rao has approved of the scheme and has no objection to vest the property in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments.
