To

The Inspector of Schools,
IIIrd Circle.
Madras.

Sir,

With the most painful feelings I beg to bring to your kind notice that I had the misfortune to lose about Rs 14500 owing to the unexpected failure of Messrs Arbuthnot and Co and I hear with deep regret that there is no hope of recovering it.

Some time ago you were pleased to ask me under instructions from the Director of Public Instruction whether I was willing to continue in service after the 31st March next and, if so, for what period and I answered in the negative partly on the strength of the above investment which fetched me an annual income of about — Rs 700 in the shape of interest. But now that I have lost the above hard-earned saving of years, I should like to serve the Department for another year after the close of the current official year which would to some extent compensate me for the heavy loss I have sustained, and I accordingly beg to request you will be pleased to bring my hard case to the kind notice of the Director of Public Instruction and recommend my retention in service for another — year, if you think that I deserve your sympathy and encouragement.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Assistant Inspector of Schools,

No. 1403/T.

Office of the Inspector of Schools,
Central Circle,
Tanjore, dated 2nd November 1906.

Letter of M.R.Ry. C.N. Subrahmanya Aiyar Avl., Assistant Inspector of Schools, Tanjore Division, (on leave) requesting to recommend retention in service for another year.

Submitted to the Director of Public Instruction with reference to his Proceedings R. on C. No. 7166/6 dated 26th October 1906.

M.R.Ry. C.N. Subramania Aiyar was not recommended for extension ashe had expressed his intention of retiring in March 1907. But my predecessor in the Southern Circle showed me no records against him when I took charge of the Tanjore Division and I have no reason to suppose that he is incompetent or undeserving of the year's extension asked for.

In the peculiar circumstances represented by him he deserves the desired extension.

Inspector of Schools,
III Circle.

~~Mr~~ C.N. Subrahmanya Aiyar, Asstt. Inspector of Schools, Tanjore Division, was born on the 22nd September 1850 and attained the age of 55 years on the 22nd September 1905. In G.O. no. 677 Ed dated 16th Nov. 1904 his retention in service till the 31st March 1906 was sanctioned and his retention up to the 31st March 1907 was sanctioned in G.O. no. 719 Edl dated 3rd Nov. 1905. This year he did not apply for further retention and he was accordingly permitted in G.O. no. 722 Ed dated 10th Nov. 1906 to retire with effect from the 1st April 1907.

2. He now states that he did not seek to remain in service further than the 31st March 1907 on the strength of his savings amounting to Rs 14,500 which was deposited with Messrs Arbuthnot & Co and which brought him an income of about Rs 700 in the year. He has now lost this income by the failure of Messrs Arbuthnot & Co and he therefore requests to be permitted to serve the Dept for one year more. The Inspector of Schools, III circle, and the D.P.I. recommend the application and state that he will be fit to discharge the duties of his office efficiently during the period of extension applied for.

3 Orders are solicited as to whether the recommendation of the D.P.I. may be accepted.

This is another hard case and in the circumstances perhaps the years further extension may be granted.

A | To what amount of pension approximately will Mr C.N. Subramanya Ayyar be entitled? It is true that his case is a special one, but others have also to be considered. If many such applications are received and granted, there will be a block in promotion which would not be fair to the junior members who are reasonably expecting promotion. It is quite possible that many of these have lost their savings also, and that they are reasonably looking forward to promotion in the ordinary course to help them to recoup their loss.

It is to be observed that Mr Subramanya Ayyar stood, in the ordinary course have retired, first on 22nd Sept 05 & again on 22nd Sept 06, before this failure occurred. Please note as at "A"

Pension is calculated on the average emoluments for 3 years. Articles 474 & 487 C.S.R.

Cy. Subramanya Aiyar's emoluments for 3 years ending with 31st March 1907 will be as follows:—

Page 5 & 6 of the History of Services.

From 1st April 1904 to 31st March 1905 (7th class Provincial Edl. service – Rs 300)	3600
do From 1st April 1905 to 31st March 1906 (6th class – Rs 350)	4200
do From 1st April 1906 to 31st March 1907 (5th class – Rs 400)	4800
	3 ⎣12,600

M.R.Ry. Subramania Aiyar is in the ~~5th class~~ class of the Provincial Edl. service. His further retention for one year will affect the promotion of officers in four grades below him. He will be in receipt of a fair pension, and it is open to question whether it would be fair to the men in the lower grades, who may be similarly circumstanced, to allow the extension
