G.O., No. 530, Educational, dated 10th August 1906.

ABSTRACT.—Informing the Collector of Madras that S. Mangapathi Nayudu requires no exemption from examination rules for appointment as quit-rent kanakapillai in the city.

II

Letter—from A. R. CUMMING, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Collector of Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—the 28th November 1906.

No.—Ref. 737-G1.

Adverting to G.O., No. 530, dated the 10th August last, I have the honour to state that ever since the receipt of G.O., No. 482, Educational, dated 28th July 1886, the view has obtained that candidates for the post of kanakapillai in Madras, the pay of which ranges from Rs. 18 to Rs. 24, should have passed the Middle School examination in the first class or the Matriculation examination and the Hand-writing test. Only passed men have therefore been entertained for the post or the special sanction of Government has been applied for and obtained—vide for instance G.O., No. 153, Educational, dated the 14th March 1905. I would also invite the attention of Government to the Public Service Notification published at page 532, Part I-B. of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 19th September 1905, which specially exempts military pensioners from the Examination rules for the purposes of appointment as quit-rent kanakapillais in Madras.

2. In these circumstances I venture to again address Government in the matter and to request that the exemptions applied for may be sanctioned.

Order—No. 5, Educational, dated 4th January 1907.

As it now appears that quit-rent kanakapillais are in superior service S. Mangapathi Nayudu requires exemption from the Upper Secondary examination for employment as such. This exemption will now be sanctioned in supersession of G.O., No. 530, Educational, dated 10th August 1906.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 5, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 4TH JANUARY 1907.

[SUBJECT.—Exemption from the examination rules of quit-rent kanakapillais.]

From the Collector of Madras, dated 28th November 1906, No. 737.

Please see the notes printed with G.O., No. 530, Educational, dated 10th August 1906.

2. In that Government order the Collector of Madras was informed that S. Mangapathi Nayudu required no exemption for appointment as quit-rent kanakapillai as kanakapillais were in inferior service and as there was no qualifying test for admission to that service.

3. The Collector now states that ever since the receipt of G.O., No. 482, Educational, dated 28th July 1886, it has been held that candidates for the post of quit-rent kanakapillais in Madras—pay varying from Rs. 18 to Rs. 24—should have passed the late Middle School Examination in the first class or the Matriculation Examination with the Handwriting Test; that only passed candidates have been appointed as quit-rent kanakapillais; and that whenever it was proposed to appoint an unpassed man the special sanction of Government was obtained as in G.O., No. 153, Educational, dated 14th March 1905. He therefore requests that S. Mangapathi Nayudu may be exempted from the examination rules for appointment as a quit-rent kanakapillai.

4. G.O., No. 482, Educational, dated 28th July 1886, applies only to appointments in the superior service and not to appointments in the inferior service. Until the year 1897 no examination qualifications were required for posts in the inferior service—vide article 1 of the Public Service Notification printed with G.O., No. 317, Educational, dated 9th May 1894. The question therefore turns on the point whether the post of quit-rent kanakapillai is in the inferior or superior service. In the entry under A—General (2) in column 1 of the table on page 5 of G.O., No. 757, Educational, dated 21st December 1904, kanakapillais are shown as inferior servants. But kanakapillais and quit-rent kanakapillais may not be the same and the latter may be in the superior service. It is submitted therefore that the Pension Department may be asked to state whether quit-rent kanakapillais are in the inferior or superior service.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Please see the case of N. Adishesha Aiyar, late kanakapillai, Quit-rent department, Deputy Collector's office, Madras, disposed of by G.O., No. 294, Pension, dated 2nd June 1903. The individual was at first a kanakapillai in the Taluk department and then in the Quit-rent department of the Deputy Collector's office. His service as kanakapillai in both the departments has been admitted by the Accountant-General as superior and he was certified as admissible for a pension of Rs. 5-9-6 per mensem for his qualifying superior service of 14 years, 5 months and 9 days, and this was sanctioned by Government—G.O., No. 294, Pension, dated 2nd June 1903.

K S.—15-12-06.

"Kanakkapillais" in the Customs department, Madras, are in superior service if their pay exceeds Rs. 10 (Civil Service Regulations, 397).

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

As it now appears from the Pension Department note of the 15th instant that quit-rent kanakapillais, whose pay varies from Rs. 18 to Rs. 24, are in superior service, S. Mangapathi Nayudu, attender in the Board's office (Separate Revenue Department) who has recently been appointed to such a post, requires exemption from the Upper Secondary Examination. He has passed only the Lower Secondary Examination. The Collector says he had advertised in the Fort St. George Gazette, but could not get a qualified man for the post. It is for consideration whether the exemption may be granted with the concurrence of the Revenue Department.

This seems to be a case for exemption.
