Station Camp Berhampur, Dated the 18 November 1906.

From (Name) Lieutenant-Colonel R.J. Macnamara M.D. I.C.
(Designation) Inspector General of Prisons

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that the Government will be pleased to sanction the exemption from the examination rules of the three undermentioned candidates for employment in the Jail Department namely,

- (1) George Alfred Casey
- (2) Ernest Victor Waples
- (3) Joseph Edmund McGuire.

see pp 3 CF.

2. These men have been entertained in the room of Messrs J.R.D. Algeet,

W.R.

W. R. Brown and E. St. Clair Oliver as European Warders of the Penitentiary Madras.

Messrs. Dhyett and Brown (whose exemption was sanctioned in G.O. No. 382 Educational dated 21st June 1904 & 249 Educational dated 15th April 1905 respectively) resigned the service, the former on account of ill health (Kala azar). Mr. Oliver who is a passed Candidate has been transferred on promotion to my office. To fill the vacancies, the three men referred to above have been selected, and as they are unpassed their exemption from the examination rules is necessary. They are recommended for exemptions by Captain Cameron, Superintendent of Prisons Madras and are youngmen of respectable parentage and of good physique. Mr. Casey studied up to the second form, Mr. Waples and Mr. McInquire up to the third form. The last named also put in a three years' course at the Medical College Madras. Passed European and Eurasian candidates are not available at present, and in the circumstances the present application is submitted.

I have the honor to be

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

No. 1-2.C.P.

In continuation of my letter No. C/1285 dated 18th November 1906, I have the honor to state that the Superintendent of Prisons, Madras, reports that Mr. L.V. Waples, temporary European Warden in the Penitentiary, has sent in his resignation of the Jail service and which he has accepted. The Superintendent is making enquiries with a view to obtain a suitable candidate to fill the vacancy in question. In the circumstances it is requested that Mr. Waples' name be omitted from the application for exemption for service in the Jail Department.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Sr,

With reference to Government Order No. 1965 of the 26th November 1906 requesting me to examine the cases submitted by Mr. Cadsden for exemption under the examination rules, and to give my opinion on the proposals made by him, I have the honor to say that with the exception of certain Army pensioners, the rules as they now stand debar warders, who have not passed the educational test, from rising to the higher grades of Chief, Deputy and Assistant Chief Warders, or any post carrying pay higher than Rs 15 a month, unless specially exempted by Government. As young men who have passed one or other of the tests required are generally speaking unwilling to take service in the lower grades of the Jail Department, it follows that selections for the higher posts have have to be made from the Military pensioners or unpassed men unless direct recruiting into the higher grades is done. The latter system is not to be commended as a rule as the men are lacking in experience of Jail work which should be one of the qualifications for advancement, and direct recruiting into the higher grades is moreover received with dissatisfaction by men in the lower ranks, who naturally look forward to promotion in due course. It is therefore usually a question of choosing between Military pensioners who are exempt from examination or making application to Government for the exemption of those who have not passed the test and are not Military pensioners. The number of pensioners applying for service in Jails, is of course limited and such as have been promoted to the higher grades have been found by experience to possess poorer educational attainments than many of those whom they have superseded but who are unlucky enough not to have passed any of the tests or to be specially exempted. It is on behalf of these latter men that application is usually made to Government. The present system of grading and recruiting and the obstacle placed to promotion by the educational test, are I believe matters that will require consideration in the near future.

As regards the 9 names submitted by Mr. Cadsden for exemption by Government I notice that 4 had been previously recommended by Colonel O'Hara and rejected. I regret I cannot offer a personal opinion on the claims of these subordinates for exemption, but should say that the 4 men who received the support of both Officers might with advantage be exempted from the educational test for employment in the higher grades of the Warder Establishment, the others being left for future consideration.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. M. M. M.

2. In his letter no. 1137: 25.9.1906 in L.O. 1963: 26.11.1906, the Ld. of Prisons (Mr. Gadsden) recommended that 9 persons* mentioned in that letter may be exempted from educational tests for the higher appointments ~~in the Judicial Dept.~~ of the warder staff.
 The recommendation was referred back to the new Ld. of Prisons (Lieut. Col. Macnamara) who in his letter no. 7717 d. 27.12.1906 explains the grounds for granting these exemptions. Again, in his letters no.

the new I.G. recommends the case of two more persons for exemption.

3. The points for consideration in the Judicial Dept. are two-fold:-

4. First, whether the I.G.'s recommendations in particular cases are to be accepted. The names of persons who are so recommended are:-

- (1) T. Anguswami
- (2) Srianna Pillai
- (3) B. D' Sylva
- (4) Nader Khan
- (5) S. Arunachella Aiyer
- (6) S. Rathnam Pillai
- (7) K. Ananth Rao
- (8) M. Seshagiri Rao
- (9) M. Doraswami Mudaliyar
- (10) George Alfred Casey
- (11) Joseph Edmund Quire

These were Mr. Gladstone's recommendations.
Lieut. Col. Macnamara seems inclined to recommend nos (1) to (4), & would leave the case of the rest for future consideration

This is Lieut. Col.
Macnamara's recommendation.

The qualifications of these men are set out at length at pp. 3-5 of G.O.
1963: 26.11.1906 and at p. 2, C.F.

5. Secondly, In this connection, the Educational Dept. seems to question the necessity for at all retaining examination qualifications for the higher ranks of the warden staff in jails. It apprehends that the rule prescribing educational test for these appointments is more honoured in the breach than in the observance by frequent and rather numerous exemptions. On this general question, attention is invited to

- (a) Para. 1 of Lieut. Col. Macnamara's letter no. 7717 d. 27.12.1906, where the grounds for these exemptions are clearly set out;
- (b) Notes K.W. G.O. 1546: 12.9.1906, regarding recruitment of European and Eurasian wardens; & also to
- (c) Notes K.W. G.O. 724, 25.12.12.1904, where Government declined altogether to do away with the educational tests for the higher warden appointments.
