Madras.

Sir,

In submitting herewith for the orders of Government a petition presented to me by M.R. Ry J. Venkanra Pantulu my permanent English Head Clerk and Ag Tahsildar of Golconda taluk, praying for an exemption from the rule barring him from appearing for the "Revenue Test Higher Grade" I have the honor to make a very strong recommendation in favour of the petitioner. He passed the Language Branch of the B.A. Degree Examination in the year 1887 but was unable to complete his B.A. course owing to his employment in Government service. He is now acting as the Senior Tahsildar of this district on Rs 200/ and has always had a high reputation for honesty and efficiency. He has also done 3 years good work as a Deputy Tahsildar in the agency tracts and put in 19 years service in the Revenue Department. Considering the backward state of education in the circars, it is, I submit, desirable to encourage men of the petitioner's qualifications and character.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. Sundarabhaiah

always had a high reputation for honesty and efficiency.

regard to the backward state of the Revenue and Criminal Cts.

Higher grade, at the examinations to be held in October 1906 and 1907.
In the notes connected with this G.O. the then Secretary Mr. Bunterworth observed as follows:—

" The man is likely to work better as a Tahsildar if he has the hope of rising to the post of Deputy Collector and from this point of view the grant of the concession sought may be expedient". This reasoning however was not accepted and it was on a quite different ground that the concession was granted, viz, ^{on the ground} ~~that~~ that the petitioner was a Dubhamada and that qualified Dubhamadas were few in the ~~circle~~. Vide the Honble member's remarks on page 9 of G.O. No. 372 Edl, d 12.5.06 In these circumstances, it is for consideration whether the concession applied for may be granted.

For precedents please see G.O. No. 76 Edl. 5 13th February 1902, G.O. No. 273 Edl. 5 16th May 1902 and G.O. No. 150 Edl. dated 23.3.00.
