THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

HOME DEPARTMENT.

Dated Fort St. George, the 21st February 1907.

SIR,

The Director of Public Instruction, Madras, has requested this Government to permit Mr. R. G. Grieve, a member of the Indian Educational Service and the Vice-Principal of the Teachers' College, Saidapet, to edit the Indian Journal of Education and to accept a remuneration of Rs. 100 per mensem for doing so.

2. The publication is a private one, but it has the reputation of being a valuable journal dealing with educational matters and the Governor in Council considers it desirable that in the public interests it should be edited by a competent educationist.

3. I am therefore directed to request that sanction may be accorded to the proposed arrangement under article 74 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 2nd February 1907, No. 24.

The Director of Public Instruction requests that permission may be given to Mr. Grieve, Vice-Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet, and M.R.Ry. M. Ramaswami Aiyangar, Third Assistant of the same institution, to accept the duties of the Editor and the Sub-Editor of the Indian Journal of Education on a remuneration of Rs. 100 and Rs. 35 per mensem, respectively.

2. It is observed that M.R.Ry. M. Ramaswami Aiyangar, while he was the Fourth Assistant of the college, was permitted to do the duties of the Sub-Editor of the same journal on a monthly remuneration of Rs. 20—please see G.O., No. 321, Educational, dated 3rd June 1899.

3. Mr. Denham, a former Vice-Principal of the same college was permitted to take up the duties of the Editor of the journal—please see G.O., No. 452, Educational, dated 11th June 1891. But in Mr. Denham's case no remuneration was fixed; nor does it appear that he received any remuneration at all.

4. In 1894, Mr. J. H. Stone, Acting Professor of English in the Presidency College, was, with the sanction of the Government of India, permitted to be the Editor of the same journal on a monthly remuneration of Rs. 75—please see letter No. 769, Educational, dated 9th October 1904, and G.O., No. 919, Educational, dated 30th November 1904.

5. In 1896, Mr. A. A. Hall, Principal of the Teachers' College, was permitted, with the sanction of the Government of India, to be the Editor of the same journal on a monthly remuneration of Rs. 75—please see letter No. 283, Educational, dated 4th May 1896 and G.O., No. 380, Educational, dated 22nd June 1896.

6. In 1897, Mr. Keess was given permission to be the Editor of the same journal on a monthly remuneration of Rs. 75—please see letter No. 197, Educational, dated 2nd April 1897, and G.O., No. 303, Educational, dated 27th May 1897.

7. If the Director's proposal is approved, the Government of India will have to be addressed for sanction to the acceptance by Mr. Grieve of the remuneration of Rs. 100 per mensem.

8. Attention is solicited to paragraph 2 (ii) of the Government of India (Home Department) letter * No. 279, dated 9th May 1906, which runs: "The general principle to be observed is that the performance of work for outside bodies or

"persons, other than those which are of a quasi-Government character, and the receipt of fees for the same, is open to objection, and should not be allowed without special reasons. In no case is the performance of work or the receipt of fees to be permitted without the previous written sanction of the local Government, which may be either general or special. In no case should permission be granted merely as a privilege or concession to the officer concerned, but exclusively on grounds of the public interest."

P.R.—13-2-07.

The point for consideration in this case is whether the grant of permission to Mr. Grieve and M.R.Ry. Ramaswami Aiyangar to undertake, respectively, the duties of Editor and Sub-Editor of the Indian Journal of Education will be a concession to the officers concerned or will be exclusively "on grounds of the public interest" within the meaning of the above resolution of the Government of India. The journal is published by Messrs. V. Kalyanarama Aiyar & Co., and it is for consideration whether the grant of permission in the cases under reference can be said to be "exclusively on grounds of the public interest."

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—13-2-07.
