N. Dis. M.C. No. $\frac{146}{2}$/06.
dated 27th November 1906
Forwarded.
for Director of Pub. Instn.

Sir,

I have begun taking certain courses of lectures here and attending the wards of the Infirmary.

Messrs Arbuthnot & Co, with whom I had deposited every pie I had laboriously saved during the past twenty-four years, have failed. I had intended to devote the first year of my furlough to the general revision of my subjects, and in the second year to specialise in throat, ear, and nose. But my private resources have suddenly and unexpectedly been reduced to nothing.

May I under these circumstances make bold to request you to kindly recommend to the Government of Madras that I be considered as having been sent to England on deputation to specialise in throat, ear, and nose with a view to utilise me in the Outpatient department of the General Hospital or on the Surgical side of the College.

The Assistant Professor has no duties to perform in the General Hospital. His work is only lecturing in the Medical College.

I have the honour to be
Sir
Your Most Obedient Servant
C. B. Ramarao
C. Asst. Surgn.

Forwarded. Such a request can only be granted of course in public interests and, I think, on wider grounds than those suggested. I do not know if there is any precedent for the concession, but if it is possible to grant it, I feel certain that Assistant Surgeon Rama Rau would amply justify his selection and I recommend its being done.

Miss P. is an Edl. officer.

Please see G.o. No. 830 Edl dated 19th December 1906; in which the Government expressed their willingness to recommend that Miss Patterson, assistant Inspectress of Girls' Schools, on leave, be placed on deputation for six months, on two-thirds salary, to enable her to proceed to England to study the system of teaching there.

2. The petitioner in this case is Civil assistant Surgeon C.B. Rama Rao, No. 5, in the second grade of Civil asstt surgeons in the Quarterly Civil Medical List put up. He is Assistant to the Professor of and Lecturer on Physiology, ~~and~~ at the Medical College Madras, and receives a Teaching allowance of Rs 100 per mensem in addition to his grade pay of Rs 150. He is now on furlough for 1 year and 10 months from 1st July 1906. The furlough has evidently been sanctioned by the Surgeon-General - vide Article 117 of the Civil Medical Code.

vide pages 34 & 35 of the list.

3. Civil Assistant Surgeon C.B. Rama Rao writes

Pages 2 & 3 of c.f.

writes from Edinburgh to say that he has begun taking certain courses of lectures there and attending the wards of the Infirmary that he had intended to devote the first year of his furlough to the general revision of his subjects and in the second year to specialise in throat, ear and nose, but that as his private resources have suddenly failed owing to the failure of messrs. Arbuthnot & Co, he is unable to carry out his original ideas. He therefore requests that he may be considered as having been sent to England on deputation to specialise in throat ear and nose, with the view of his being utilised in the out patient Department of the General Hospital or on the Surgical side of the College. The of Principal of the Medical College (Major Crawford I.M.S.) supports the above request.

Vide his Endorsement on page 4 of c.f.

3. The assistant Professors of the medical College do not appear to have any duties connected in the General Hospital. Unless, therefore, Civil assistt Surgeon C.B. Rama Rao ceases to be an assistant Professor, of the Medical College, he cannot be employed on any duties in the General Hospital. At the same time it is observed that C.B. Rama Rao is borne on the list of Civil assistant Surgeons in the ~~Medical Dept~~ Medical Dept. and although he is now posted as Assistant Professor of the Medical College, for which duty he is paid a teaching allowance of Rs 100 per mensem extra, he may be withdrawn at any moment, in which case, he will revert to the Medical Departt. In any case, the application of C.B. Rama Rao appears to be one for consideration in the Public Departt.

as

4. Perhaps the D.P.I. may be consulted as, whether the ~~further~~ training which Civil Assistant Surgeon C.B. Rama Rao is said to be undergoing at present and which he wants to ~~un~~ ~~[illegible]~~ undergo subsequently will be in the interests of the medical College.

I do not see how Asst. Surgeon Rama Rao's request can be supported in the Edl Dept. Though holding the post of Assistant Professor in the Medical College he is presumably liable at any minute to be reverted to ~~his ordinary~~ exclusive duties in the Medical Branch.
