IMPERIAL TEXT BOOK SCHEME.

REPORT.

Substantial progress has been made with the arrangements for the first of the League's Imperial text books. The general scheme for the volume was approved by the Editorial Committee in October, and it is hoped that much of it will be in proof ready to be submitted to the consideration of the Federal Conference on Education next May. Among those who have promised to contribute are: Sir Frederick Pollock, Bart., D.C.L., LL.D.; Nicholas Donnell Davis, Esq., C.M.G.; R. W. Frazer, Esq., C.E., author of "British India," in the Story of the Nations series; F. W. Pennefather, Esq., LL.D., late judge of the Supreme Court of New Zealand; Dr. A. J. Herbertson, Reader in Geography in the University of Oxford; W. L. Grant, Esq., Assistant Professor of Colonial History in the University of Oxford; Thomas Seccombe, Esq.; E. I. Carlyle, Esq., Fellow of Merton College; G. W. Gough, Esq., late Scholar of Balliol College; and H. W. Wilson, Esq., author of "Ironclads in Action."
