In regard to Kunhi Rayan, ~~these~~ ~~[illegible]~~ reasons are ~~[illegible]~~ assigned by the Conservator of Forests, Mr Lodge. vide columns 8 to 10 of the application. The appointment of a 'thoroughly reliable' man as Dy Ranger is desirable. Kunhi Rayan is reported to read and write English, and he can be trained at the Coimbatore Forest School. — p 3 of C. F. — G.O. 251 T / 17.3.05

2. As regards Srinivasa Rao, it is submitted that he has passed the Departmental and Forestry tests. He was confirmed as Forester in 1897, and his work is reported to be satisfactory. In the absence of qualified men therefore, he is eligible for promotion to the grade of Dy Rangers under section 31 (c) of the Madras Forest Code. — p 3 of C. F. — p 24 of the list. S — p 4 of C. Candidates to the post of Dy Rangers are required (a) to have passed at the Dehra Dun Forest School and obtained the School certificate certificate in Forestry, or (b) to have passed the Upper Secondary or the Matriculation examination, the Forestry subject in the Madras Govt. Technical examinations and the Departmental test in Forest Code, Act and rules. In the absence of such qualified men under (a) or (b), candidates who have passed the Upper Secondary or the Matriculation examination and the departmental test, and who have rendered not less than five years' satisfactory service as Foresters are eligible for promotion to the class of Dy Rangers. vide Section 31 of the Madras Forest Code and Appendix IV to the Code. p 10 pp 237 & 238

2. In column 8 of the application in G.O. no. 288 Edn. dy 4th May 1905, the Conservator of Forests, Southern Circle, reported that "much difficulty was experienced in filling "up vacancies in the Dy Ranger's class from "outsiders direct possessing necessary "qualifications". Q

3. Difficulty appears also to be felt in the promotion of Foresters to the class of Dy Rangers. It will be seen from the list of Foresters in the Southern circle that most of them have been exempted from the admission tests for the appointment ~~[illegible]~~, pages 24-30 of the list - flagged S.

of ~~Foresters~~ in most cases. As regards those who have passed the admission tests, the Conservator observed that they were either not fully qualified or the few that were fully qualified did not deserve promotion. (vide column 8 of the application in G.O. no. 9 288 Edn. of 4th May 1905)
