3. Two ~~need~~ draftsmen, ~~on a pay~~ of Rs. 30 ~~per mensem each~~ Rs. 30 each, ~~are~~ working from 1st October 1905 under the immediate supervision of the Assistant Superintendent of the School of Arts, on the preparation of a series of drawings and diagrams for the illustrated pattern books from selected specimens of the principal art industries which are available at the Government Museum and elsewhere. The work is now in progress ~~They have made good progress with their work and the books will~~ it is hoped, ~~will soon be ready for publication in the near future~~.

4. It has also been suggested that designs from Dravidian temples should be selected and plastercasts of them taken, the drawings being reproduced at the Survey office and distributed to various industrial Schools where they can be framed or kept in portfolios and that arrangements should likewise be made for the despatch from Industrial Schools to the Superintendent of Government Museum of the ~~working~~ drawings of any of their designs ~~work~~ which the Superintendent of the school or the Inspector of Technical Schools may think specially good, so that those drawings may, if possible,
