To the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department

Sir,

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of government to the continuance, until the 31st March 1908, of the post of proof reader in the Oriental Manuscripts Library. The sanction accorded in G.O. No. 247 Educational dated 4th April 1906 expires with the 31st instant.

The Curator reports that about 1050 slips have so far been revised and printed during 1906-1907 and that 7450 slips yet remain to be printed.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Director of Public Instruction.
