GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. T. T. LOGAN, B.A., Acting Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—the 28th March 1907.

No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 1503/07.

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the transfer of the head-quarters of the Assistant Inspector of Schools, Ganjám-Vizagapatam Division, from Vizianagram to Vizagapatam.

2. Vizagapatam is the head-quarters of the district and is also the head-quarters of the Inspector of Schools, First Circle. Mr. Yates, the Inspector of the First Circle, considers it desirable to have one of the Assistant Inspectors at his head-quarters. By the proposed transfer the Inspector will be more in touch with his assistant and more often in a position to exercise his personal influence over him. The President of the District Board and Government Agent will also be more in touch with the Assistant Inspector. The present Assistant Inspector is a somewhat dilatory officer and when discussing his office work with Mr. Yates when I was in Vizagapatam we came to the conclusion that in order to expedite the despatch of work in the Assistant Inspector's office it would be well to make the transfer to Vizagapatam.

In G.O., No. 237, dated 13th April 1896, the head-quarters of the Assistant Inspector which were formerly at Vizagapatam, were transferred to Vizianagram on the ground that the latter station was more central. But I submit that Vizianagram, which is only two hours journey by rail from Vizagapatam, is not after all so much more central for the two districts comprising the division and that in view of the administrative advantages secured by it as specified above a retransfer of the head-quarters to Vizagapatam is desirable.

The Assistant Inspector's office is now held in a rented building at Vizianagram so that there is no objection to the transfer on the ground of additional expenditure for rent.

Order—No. 207, Educational, dated 8th April 1907.

The Government sanction the transfer of the head-quarters of the Assistant Inspector of Schools, Ganjám-Vizagapatam Division, from Vizianagram to Vizagapatam.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 207, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 8TH APRIL 1907.

[SUBJECT.—Transfer of the head-quarters of the Assistant Inspector of Schools, Ganjám-Vizagapatam division.]

Previous paper.

G.O., No. 237, dated 13th April 1896.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 28th March 1907, No. 1503.

The present head-quarters of the Assistant Inspector of Schools, Ganjám-Vizagapatam Division, is Vizianagram.

2. The Director of Public Instruction (Hon'ble Mr. Logan) now requests that it may be transferred to Vizagapatam for the following reasons:—

(1) The head-quarters of the Inspector of Schools, I Circle, being Vizagapatam, the Inspector will, by the proposed transfer, be more in touch with his Assistant and more often in a position to exercise his personal influence over him.

Good reasons.

G. S. F[ORBES].

(2) The President of the District Board and the Government Agent will also be more in touch with the Assistant Inspector.

(3) To expedite work in the office of the Assistant Inspector (Babu Sasi Bushana Palit who is a somewhat dilatory officer) the proposed transfer of head-quarters is desirable.

Poor reason.

C. A. SOUTER.

3. If the Director's recommendation is accepted, the draft placed below may issue.

T.K.—3-4-07.

Previous to 1896, Vizagapatam was the head-quarters of the Assistant Inspector. The head-quarters was transferred from Vizagapatam to Vizianagram from 1st April 1896, at the instance of Dr. Duncan, then Director of Public Instruction, for the reasons given in the Assistant Inspector's letter, dated 3rd March 1896, on page 1 of G.O., No. 237, Educational, dated 13th April 1896. It is now proposed to retransfer the head-quarters to Vizagapatam.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—3-4-07.

C. A. SOUTER—4-4-07.

The reasons given for the change are not convincing. Vizianagram is much more central, and with the opening of the Raipur line will be still more so.

2. If Babu Sasi Bushana Palit cannot be trusted to work except under the Inspector's eye he should be reduced to a lower post.

H. D. TAYLOR—5-4-07.

The Director of Public Instruction's proposal may be accepted. I am not prepared to overrule him.

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department

Sir,

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of government to the transfer of the Headquarters of the Assistant Inspector of Schools, Ganjam-Vizagapatam Division from Vizianagaram to Vizagapatam.

2 Vizagapatam is the Headquarters of the District and is also the Headquarters of the Inspector of Schools, First Circle. Mr. Yates, the Inspector of the First Circle, considers it desirable to have one of the Assistant Inspectors at his Headquarters. By the proposed transfer the Inspector will be more in touch with his assistant and more often in a position to exercise his personal influence over him. The President of the District Board and Government Agent will also be more in touch with the Assistant Inspector. The present Assistant Inspector is a somewhat dilatory officer and when discussing head quarters to Vizagapatam.

(1) The head quarters of the Assistant Inspector was transferred from Vizagapatam to Vizianagaram on 1st April 1896. The reasons given for the transfer were that Vizianagaram is more central and with the opening of the Rajahmundry line it will be more convenient for the Assistant Inspector to look after the work of the division.

(2) The Assistant Inspector has been working at Vizianagaram since the transfer. He has been able to look after the work of the division very well.

(3) It is proposed to retransfer the head quarters to Vizagapatam. The reasons for this are that Vizagapatam is a more important place and it will be more convenient for the Assistant Inspector to look after the work of the division.
