With reference to the Memorandum of Government,
No. 620, Educational, dated, 19th December last, I have the honour to state that the delay in reporting Mr. Littlehailes's absence from duty was due to the non-receipt until the 5th November 1906 of a formal application for leave on his behalf supported by the necessary medical certificate. Even then the medical certificate produced was the one granted by his medical attendant, and as a certificate from a medical board was required for submission to Government arrangements had to be made for the examination of Mr. Littlehailes by such a board at Ootacamund whither he had proceeded for a change. The medical boards' certificate was received from the Surgeon-General on the 11th December and it was submitted to Government on the 13th idem together with the leave application already received. Mr. Littlehailes was absent from duty from 17th August and this circumstance was reported to me by the Principal on 28th August. Mr. Littlehailes's absence from duty would have been reported by me to Government earlier, but I waited for his formal application for leave accompanied by the prescribed medical certificate. He was not expected to be absent for so long and Mr. Allen thought that a local arrangement was enough to carry on his work during his absence. I accordingly placed, on the Principal's recommendation and in anticipation of the approval of Government, M.R. Ry K.R. Ramaswami Aiyangar, Mr. Littlehailes's assistant and a Master of Arts in Mathematics, in charge of the Professor's duties in addition to his own.

2. The hope entertained of Mr. Littlehailes's early recovery was, however, not realized, and the temporary arrangement above referred to had therefore to be continued till his return to duty on the 20th December. ✓

3. M.R. Ry Ramaswami Aiyangar requests that he may be considered to have acted as Professor of Mathematics from the 12th September to 19th December 1906, both days inclusive, and from the enclosed copy of the letter of the Principal, Presidency College, No. 14, dated, 16th January 1907, it will be observed that the charge of the duties of the Professor of Mathematics entailed on M.R. Ry Ramaswami Aiyangar a substantial increase of work and responsibility for over three months. A charge allowance of Rs. 50 per mensem might be granted to him under Art. 161 of the Civil Service Regulations, but it seems to be inadmissible in view of G.O. No. 32-Mis, Educational, dated, 18th January 1907, passed in an almost analogous case. I beg, therefore, to recommend that he be considered to have acted for Mr. Littlehailes in the Indian Educational Service for the period he was in charge of his duties in addition to his own work so as to enable him to draw a salary of Rs. 175 per mensem (Rs. 100, the pay of his substantive appointment as 8th Junior assistant Professor, Presidency College, + Rs. 75, the allowance admissible under Art. 139 of the Civil Service Regulations). On a previous occasion the assistant to the Professor of Physics, who was also an officer of the subordinate service, was gazetted to act for the Professor in the Indian Educational Service for even a considerably longer period - vide Gazette notification No. 12, dated, 21st January 1902. If my recommendation meets with the approval of Government I shall submit the usual minute of appointment for the sanction of His Excellency the Governor in Council.

Sir,

In reply to your Proceedings Ref. on C. No. 6657 of '06, dated, 9th January 1907, I have the honour to state that M.R.Ry K.R. Ramaswami Aiyangar was in charge of the duties of Professor of Mathematics in addition to his own from 12th September 1906 to 19th December 1906 (inclusive).

To the B.A. classes he lectured for 7 hours a week on Hydrostatics, Statics, Differential Calculus and Analytical Geometry, in addition to his usual work with them, and this, of course necessitated increased work at home. Against this, however, he was relieved from 2 weekly lectures to the Senior F.A. and 1 to the Junior F.A. classes. He did not meet the M.A. students at regular hours as Mr. Littlehailes was accustomed to do, but he informs me that he gave them occasional help.

In the Annual Examination he set and valued the two papers formerly dealt with by Mr. Littlehailes.

Cur.No.273 From the Director of Public Instruction, No.6657, D/ 5-2-07.

SUBJECT.

Explaining the delay in the submission of the report of Mr.Littlehailes' absence and requesting approval of the arrangement made during that officer's absence.

Mr.Littlehailes, Professor of Mathematics, ^{Madras,} Presidency College, absented himself from duty owing to illness from 17th August 1906. The Director of Public Instruction reported the fact to Government on the 13th December 1906, when he submitted Mr.Littlehailes' application for furlough on medical certificate for 4 months and 3 days. The Government while sanctioning the ~~period of~~ furlough applied for, asked the Director of Public Instruction to explain the delay in the submission of the report of Mr.Littlehailes' absence and to state what arrangements had been made for the discharge of his duties during his absence.

2. As regards the delay in the submission of the report, the Director states that until 5th November 1906 no formal application for leave was received by him; and even then the medical certificate that accompanied the application was one granted by -- Mr.Littlehailes' medical attendant. Arrangements had therefore to be made for the medical examination of Mr.Littlehailes at Ootacamund where he had proceeded for a change, and the Director was able to get the proper medical certificate only on the 11th December 1906. ^{Mr. Logan} The Director of Public Instruction says that he submitted this certificate to Government on the 13th idem with Mr.Littlehailes' application for furlough and that but for the delay in getting the medical certificate required, he would have reported Mr.Littlehailes' absence earlier.

3. It is submitted that the Director of Public Instruction should have reported to Government as soon as Mr.Littlehailes absented himself, and not waited to send his report until Mr.Littlehailes was able to submit a medical certificate.

4. As regards the arrangement made during Mr.Littlehailes' absence, the Director states ^{that} as Mr.Littlehailes was not expected to be absent for a long time, Mr.Allen, the Principal of the College thought that a local arrangement was enough for the discharge of his duties during his absence, and that he (Director of Public Instruction) therefore, in anticipation of sanction, placed M.R.Ry. K.R.Ramaswami Aiyangar Avargal, 8th Junior Assistant Professor (salary Rs.100 per mensem) and Assistant to Mr.Littlehailes, in charge of the latter's duties. This arrangement, however, had to be continued till 20th December 1906, when Mr.Littlehailes returned from leave.

Clearly the D.P.I. need not have waited from the 17th August to the 19th. He must have known of Mr. Little's absence & it couldn't have been very difficult to make out a proper medical certificate.

5. From the copy of the Principal's letter enclosed by the Director, it is observed that M.R.Ry Ramaswami Aiyangar was in charge of the duties of Professor of Mathematics in addition to his own from 12th September 1906 to 19th December 1906 (inclusive). He lectured to the B.A. classes for ~~Seven~~ ^{Seven} hours a week in addition to his usual work with them, but ~~that~~ he was relieved from two weekly lectures to the Senior F.A. class and one to the Junior F.A. class, and ~~that~~ he did not meet the M.A. students at regular hours as Mr.Littlehailes used to do. It is also stated that K.R.Ramaswami Aiyangar set and valued the two papers in the annual examination formerly dealt with by Mr.Littlehailes.

6. In view of this increased responsibility for over a period of three months, the Director recommends a charge allowance of Rs.50 per mensem to M.R.Ry. K.R.Ramaswami Aiyangar under Article 161 of the Civil Service Regulations. But doubting the expediency of this proposal in the face of G.O.No.32 Edl., dated 18th January 1907, he recommends, as an alternative,, that M.R.Ry Ramaswami Aiyangar may be considered to have acted for Mr.Littlehailes in the Indian Educational Service from 12th September to 19th December 1906 so as to enable him to draw a salary of Rs.175 per mensem (100 pay, plus 75 allowance admissible under Article 139 of the Civil Service Regulations).

7. Under Article 139 of the Civil Service Regulations, an officer of the Provincial or Subordinate Educational Service appointed by the Local Government to officiate in a temporary vacancy, in a post specifically reserved for, or usually filled by, officers of the Indian or Provincial Educational Service, receives an allowance as follows:-

x x x x x

"An officer of the Subordinate Service acting
"in an appointment in the Indian Service, Rs.75 a "month."

x x x x x

Provided

Provided that the salary of the officiating officer shall not exceed the pay of the officer for whom he acts, and shall not be less than his own pay. When the Office is substantively vacant, the officiating officer may be granted the allowance in full.

8. Orders are solicited whether as proposed by the Director of Public Instruction, M.R.Ry.K.R.Ramaswami Aiyangar should be considered to have acted for Mr. Littlehailes during the absence of the latter - In this connection the Director of Public Instruction solicits attention to G.O.No.53 R., dated 21st January 1902 ^{in which} a similar arrangement was sanctioned by Government.

If this proposal is sanctioned, the Director states that he will submit the usual minutes of appointment.

M
9/2/07

From paragraph 1 of the D.P.G.'s letter on pages of cf. it is observed that K.R. Ramaswami aiyangar was placed "in charge" of Mr. Littlehailes' duties in addition to his own. It does not appear to have been then contemplated by the D.P.G. that this arrangement would continue long or that K. R. Ramaswami aiyangar should be granted any allowance. The proposal that the Assistant Professor above named (Salary Rs.100 per mensem) should be considered to have acted for Mr. Littlehailes, in the Indian Educational Service

Service is now put forward for the first time and it is for consideration whether the proposal may be sanctioned. From Mr. Allen's letter on pages of it is observed that although under this arrangement K.R. Ramaswami Aiyangar ~~was doing~~ ^{was} had to do seven hours additional work ^{a week}, he was relieved of three hours' lecturing a week, of his legitimate duties. In this connection attention is invited to G.O. No. 32 of dated 18th January 1907 in which the Govt. disallowed the proposal of the D.P.G. to grant a charge allowance to Velayudasari for the period in which he was in charge of the office of Superintendent of the School of Arts.
