L.D. 16 In.

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the entertainment with effect from 1st April 1907 of a temporary assistant lecturer on Rs 75 in the Government College at Kumbakonam.

2. The strength of the F.A. classes on 31st March 1906 was 76 pupils in the Junior and 82 in the Senior class; and it has this term risen to 120 and 106 respectively. These large numbers have rendered the classes unwieldy and made individual instruction, which is necessary for these students who have just come up from high schools, an extremely difficult matter. It is therefore desirable to have each class split up into two sections and I am satisfied that this cannot be arranged with the existing staff. Hence this application.

3. It is difficult now to state from what source the sum of Rs 825 which this proposal involves can be re-appropriated; but I anticipate under salaries in arts colleges larger savings than have been budgeted for . The provision for this temporary assistant may therefore be included under salaries and probable savings, as entered in the budget estimates now before Government, may be raised by a corresponding amount.

The necessary proposition statement is submitted.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

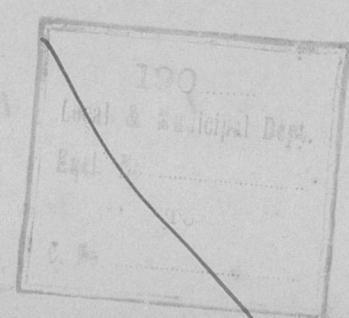

Your most obedient servant,

Arthur L. ...

SUBJECT.

Appointment of a temporary Assistant Lecturer
in the Kumbakonam College

The D.P.I. (Honble Mr. Logan) applies for sanction to the appointment of a temporary asst-lecturer on Rs 75 p.m. in the Govt. College at Kumbakonam with effect from the 1st April 1907.

2. The Director states that the strength of the F. A. classes, which was 76 in the Junior and 82 in the Senior division on the 31st March 1906, has, during the current term, risen to 120 and 106 respectively; that the classes have thus become unwieldy; that it is desirable to have each class split up into two sections; and that this cannot be arranged with the existing staff.

3. There is no provision for this extra charge in the current year's budget; but the D.P.I. states that it can be met from the savings under salaries in Arts Colleges.

4. The A.G. states that there is no audit objection to Govt's sanctioning the proposal.

5. A draft order is placed below for approval; if approved, it may issue

3-4-07. The D.P. I. applies for sanction from 1st April 1907. The college closes for the Summer vacation from 3rd May 1907 (Friday) inclusive to 3rd July 1907, and if the additional Assistant Lecturer is sanctioned now he will only work for a month before the vacation and will receive pay during the vacation (two months) doing nothing. Perhaps the temporary additional assistant lecturer may be sanctioned with effect from 3rd July 1907, the date of reopening of the College after the Summer vacation, if this is not likely to cause serious inconvenience. The D.P. I. has made out a case for the employment of a temporary assistant.
