From

The Board of Revenue, Land Revenue, Forests.

The Hon'ble Mr. C. J. Weir, Commissioner of Land Revenue.

Read application for exemption from examination rules received from F. A. Lodge, Esq., Conservator of Forests, South ern Circle, Cur. No. 733 dated 20th February 1907.

Reference.

Submitted to the Government with the request that they will be pleased to exempt Jamadar Veeraswami Nayudu per- manently from passing the Upper Secondary Examination, the Forestry test, (intermediate) and the Departmental tests in Forest Code, Acts, and Rules in so far as his appointment to the grade of Deputy Rangers is concerned. Veeraswami Nayudu was appointed as a forester on 13th October 1905, has been trained at the Coimbatore school and is said to be in every way fit for pro- motion. As the Forest Department is in urgent need of good Deputy Rangers, the Board supports the Conservator's recommenda- tion.

Acting Secretary.

To the Secretary to Govt. N. V. with application in original

Educational Department

Name, age, and Educational qualification of the unpassed candidate for whose examination sanction is sought.	The portion in which the pay of it is proposed to be put and the unpassed candidate instructed of the appointment, whether permanent or temporary.	The examination for which the appointment is expected to last.	The period for which the appointment is now made (with dates of previous appointments and of previous appointments).	Is this a first application or one for a renewal of a previous sanction?	What steps have been taken to ensure the success of the candidate and of the Department?	Remarks
Jamador Verasawami Naidu about 43 years 2 nd Class Examination. Regimental School.	Deputy Rangees Class. - Permanent. Travelling allowance.	Upper Secondary Examination Department 4 th Front every book.	Permanent from 1 st Jan 1897.	First application.	The difficulty of securing good field men who will be. Conclude. Sincerely strong and filled to undergo exposure to sun and damp in especially feverish climates has been explained in previous applications.	The man states that he entered the 22 nd Madras Infantry in May 1883 at his 20 th year, was promoted as Lance Naik in 1886, as Naik in 1889, as Naik in 1891, as Naik in 1895 and as Naik in 1899. This regiment was disbanded on 16.5.03 and he retired on pension when he put in a request for about 20 years. Although he is aged about 43 years he looks younger and is well built and fit for hard work. He speaks English well but cannot speak fluently. He is considered to be a trustworthy and reliable man and the District Officer South Coimbatore, where the man is employed, recommends him for promotion to Deputy Ranger's class. He has undergone training in the Coimbatore Training School and is fit in every way for promotion. I approve of the District Officer's recommendation and request that the Government obtain the sanction of the Government to appoint him from the qualifications referred to in the above.
