EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

I

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. T. T. LOGAN, B.A., Acting Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Accountant-General).

Dated—the 21st March 1907.

No.—Ref. on Cur. 293.

The pay of the Headmaster of the School of Commerce at Calicut was fixed at Rs. 140 when the school was first started and the present incumbent, S. Vaidyanatha Aiyar, was appointed to the post in February 1900. He has done, and is still doing, excellent work and the school has greatly risen in efficiency and popularity under him. I think that work, such as his, deserves encouragement; but he cannot, for promotion in pay, be taken out of his school. Dr. Bourne included the appointment in his proposals for grading the subordinate service, but this scheme as finally approved by Government is confined only to assistant lecturers in the arts colleges. I, therefore, beg to recommend, in order to secure the continued efficiency of the school which has now fully justified the expectations entertained of it when it was first started and as a deserved encouragement to the present incumbent, that the pay of the Headmaster should be made progressive and that the maximum salary should correspond to the scale sanctioned for Sub-Assistant Inspectors of the first class, viz., Rs. 175. The present pay of the appointment is Rs. 140 fixed and it may be raised to Rs. 125—5—175 (annual). The First Assistant's pay is Rs. 70 and it may also be similarly altered into Rs. 50—3—80.

2. These proposals which may have effect from 1st April 1907 will result in an additional expenditure of only Rs. 13½ per mensem though they will not involve any additional expenditure immediately.

3. The necessary proposition statement is submitted.

Letter—from W. DOBBIE, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 2nd April 1907.
No.—T. 18-Mal./9.

In forwarding the enclosed proposition statement received with letter No. 299, dated 21st March 1907, from the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, I have the honour to state that the entries in the column "Present scale" have been compared with the registers of this office and are correct.

2. There is no audit objection to the proposal being sanctioned by Government with effect from 1st April 1907.

Order—No. 251, Educational, dated 29th April 1907.

The proposal of the Director of Public Instruction to make the pay of the Headmaster of the School of Commerce, Calicut, progressive, is approved; but Government see no reason to modify the pay of the First Assistant.

2. The proposition statement as thus modified is sanctioned.

(True Extract.)

H. D. TAYLOR,
Ag. Secretary to Government

To the Director of Public Instruction.

3. The Director of Public Instruction states that the pay of the Headmaster of the School of Commerce was fixed at Rs. 140 when the school was first started in 1895; that the present incumbent, S. Vaidyanatha Aiyar, who was appointed to the post in 1900 has done and is still doing excellent work and that the school has greatly risen in efficiency and popularity under him. The Hon'ble Mr. Logan thinks that work such as Vaidyanatha Aiyar's deserves encouragement; but that he cannot, for promotion in pay, be taken out of his school.

4. The Director therefore recommends that the pay of the Headmaster should be made progressive and raised to Rs. 125, rising by annual increments of Rs. 5 to Rs. 175 so that the maximum pay should correspond to the scale sanctioned for Sub-Assistant Inspectors of the 1st class, viz., Rs. 175.

5. The Director also proposes that the 1st Assistant's pay of Rs. 70 should be similarly altered into Rs. 50 rising by annual increments of Rs. 3 to Rs. 80.

6. It is for consideration whether these proposals, which involve an additional expenditure of Rs. 13½* per mensem, may be approved.

The Accountant-General

Sir,

The pay of the Headmaster of the School of Commerce at Calicut was fixed at Rs 140/- when the school was first started and the present incumbent, S. Vaidyanatha Aiyar, was appointed to the post in February 1900. He has done, and is still doing excellent work and the school has greatly risen in efficiency and popularity under him. I think that work such as his deserves encouragement; but he cannot, for promotion in pay be taken out of his school. Dr. Bourne included the appointment in his proposals for grading the subordinate service, but this scheme as finally approved by Government is confined only to assistant lecturers in the arts colleges. I, therefore, beg to recommend, in order to secure the continued efficiency of the school which has now fully justified the expectations entertained of it when it was first started and as a deserved encouragement to the present incumbent, that the pay of the headmaster should be made progressive and that the maximum salary should correspond to the scale sanctioned for Sub Assistant Inspectors of the 1st class viz. Rs 175. The present pay of the appointment is Rs 140/- fixed and it may be raised to Rs 125-5-175 /annual/. The 1st Assistant's pay is Rs 70/- and it may also be similarly altered into 50-3-80.

2 These proposals which may have effect from 1st April 1907 will result in an additional expenditure of only Rs $13 \frac{8}{9}$ per mensem though they will not involve any additional expenditure immediately.

3 The necessary proposition statement is submitted.
