To the Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Educational Department

Su,

In their order No. 654 Mis Educational dated

9th October 1906 Government sanctioned the appointment in the High School Department attached to the Training College, Rajahmundry of two temporary assistants in addition to the three assistants whose retention until ^{the} 31st March last was sanctioned in G.O. No. 246 Educational dated 4th April 1906. The continuance of these five appointments is absolutely necessary; and I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for it. It is not desirable that so many appointments should be of a temporary nature and for so long ; and I think the time is come when they should be brought on the permanent establishment . It is also desirable that 3rd and 4th classes should be opened at this institution . With these objects in view I intend to shortly address Government

C. No. 1046 From the D.P.I. No. 287, dated 30-4-1907.

SUBJECT. Continuance of the temporary establishment sanctioned for the Rajahmundry Training College.

There are at present five temporary assistants at the Rajahmundry Training College. Three of them were sanctioned in G.O. no. 981 Financial dated 22nd November 1902 and two were sanctioned in G.O. no. 654 Educational dated 9th October 1906. The D.P.I. states that the continuance of these five appointments is absolutely necessary and ~~that~~ requests ^{that} their continuance until the 31st March 1908 may be sanctioned.

2. The Director states that it is not desirable that so many appointments should remain temporary for so long a period and that it is time for these being made permanent. He intends shortly to address Govt on the subject and until then he desires the temporary appointments to be continued.

3. A draft sanctioning the continuance of the temporary appointments until the 31st March 1908 is submitted for approval; if approved, it may be sent to the Financial Dept for ^{acceptance} approval.
