GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper :—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. T. T. Logan, B.A., Acting Director of Public Instruction.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 22nd May 1907.
No.—Ref. on Cur. 8978 of 1906.

With reference to G.O., No. 190, Educational, dated 2nd April 1907, accepting the list of approved text books published in the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 29th January 1907, as a consolidated list, I have the honour to submit herewith copy of a notification which I have published in the Gazette in consequence of the order.

2. In my letter Ref. on C. No. 8978 of 1906, dated 7th March 1907, I said that books not actually in use in 1906 were either unsuitable or out of print or out of date and that they were, therefore, omitted from the list published in January 1907. But it has since been brought to my notice that there are also instances of books on the 1905 list never before used in schools and which were first introduced in January 1907. These are reported to be desirable books and the reason why they were not used in schools till now is probably that many of them had not been previously "pushed" by publishers. It will also be throwing unnecessary work on the committee if such desirable books, once approved, are again submitted to them for consideration. I consider it, therefore, desirable that any manager of a school who wishes to introduce henceforth a book included in the 1905 list but excluded from the list published in January 1907 may be asked to write to the Director intimating his wish and enclosing a copy, and that the Director after consultation if necessary with the Text Book Committee Sub-Committee concerned be authorized either to give the necessary permission himself or if he thinks the book is obsolete to refer it to a general meeting of the Text Book Committee for final decision on the point. The books so approved will be included in the supplemental list of approved text books which will be published annually.

3. If my suggestion is approved I shall issue the necessary notification in the Gazette.

---

Enclosure.

Notification.

It is hereby notified for the information of publishers and managers of schools that the list of approved text books published in the Fort. St. George Gazette of the 29th January 1907 has been declared by Government to be a consolidated list. But books on the consolidated list of 1905 excluded from the 1906 list but already purchased for use in schools will be considered as having been approved for the current year only.

Order—No. 369, Educational, dated 12th June 1907.

The proposal of the Director of Public Instruction is approved.
