On looking into the file again, I see that the C. G. E. does not appear to be correct in saying that the sanction of the Govt of India is required for the pay of honoraria to messrs. Burns, Moleworth and Fisher, as the receipts cover the remuneration. Cf Article 2(d) of C.S.D. Perhaps the C.G.E. has taken into account the total remuneration paid for all the Technical Examns.
including the cases which were passed yesterday. Please obtain those pp.
at once from Madras & see if India's sanction will be necessary if ^{all} the cases are considered collectively.

G.O. no. 318 Edl dated 25-5-07 and Rno. 245 dated 28-5-07 have been obtained from Madras and are submitted. The fees and the stipends given in all the three papers aggregate Rs 7136 and Rs 6854 respectively. As the fee receipts thus exceed the total amount of stipends to be paid, the sanction of the Govt of India does not appear to be necessary.

A revised draft is placed below for approval. The omission to notice this point in the first instance is regretted.

I am not sure what the "certain" cases" in the last line of Art 72(d) mean, but the sanction of India would not appear necessary.
