Letter—from G. B. H. FELL, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Education).
To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.
Dated—Simla, the 3rd June 1907.
No.—415.

In continuation of the Home Department letter No. 207, dated the 12th March 1907, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Governor in Council, a copy of the despatches noted on the margin regarding the temporary appointment to the Indian Educational Service of Miss Hannah Krishnamma to officiate as Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses, Madras.

2. I am to add that the Government of India consider it unnecessary to declare as proposed in the final sentence of paragraph 4 of your letter No. 826, of the 15th December 1906, that article 144, Civil Service Regulations, is applicable in the case of officers who are appointed to officiate in the Indian Educational Service while officiating in the provincial or subordinate educational service with no substantive appointment, as they believe such cases are likely to be very rare.

ENCLOSURES.

Despatch—from the Government of India, Finance Department (Pay and Allowances).
To—His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.
Dated—Calcutta, the 28th February 1907.
No.—69.

We have the honour to address you regarding the temporary appointment to the Indian Educational Service of Miss Hannah Krishnamma to act as Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses, Madras.

2. Miss Krishnamma, at the time of her selection for her present duties, held no substantive appointment under Government but was officiating in an appointment in the subordinate educational service, in which it is proposed to confirm her with effect from the 1st August 1906. The Accountant-General, Madras, has pointed out that, as your sanction was not obtained to her appointment to the Indian Educational Service, she is ineligible to receive, under article 144, Civil Service Regulations, an acting allowance of half the pay of the post. He has therefore treated her as a member, though in an officiating capacity only, of the subordinate educational service, and has passed to her an acting allowance of Rs. 75 per mensem under article 139, Civil Service Regulations.

3. We agree with the Local Government that a total salary of Rs. 75 a month is inadequate remuneration for the duties attached to an appointment the pay of which is Rs. 350—10—450. We consider, moreover, that Miss Krishnamma cannot properly be regarded as a member of the subordinate educational service for the purpose of the provisions of article 139, Civil Service Regulations, and that your sanction should have been obtained, in the first instance, to her appointment. We accordingly recommend that her appointment as Officiating Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses may now be confirmed, and that as such she may be granted a salary of Rs. 175 per mensem or half the minimum pay of this appointment, for the period from the 9th to the 31st July 1906, during which she officiated as Superintendent while holding no substantive appointment under Government.
