2. It has been ascertained by reference to the President, Board of Examiners, Medical College, that a full timed clerk was not appointed to the place last year, as contemplated in the proposal, but that the duties were performed by a Hospital Assistant attached to the Royapettah Hospital, to whom therefore the allowance, if sanctioned, would become payable. It is, therefore a question for the consideration of Government whether the whole amount of Rs. 20 a month intended for a full time clerk should be granted to the Hospital Assistant who was doing the duties in 1906 and whether the same arrangement should be continued in the present year also. Subject to this remark, there is no audit objection to the proposal being sanctioned by Government under Article 72 of the Civil Service Regulations.

Sir,

With reference to Memorandum No. 721-1 Educational dated 5th April 1907 I have the honour to state that the President, Board of Examiners, Medical College, reports

- i that the amount actually paid in 1906 was Rs 20;
- ii that in September 1905 a sum of Rs 120 was drawn
- iii that both these amounts , which make up Rs 140 for seven months at Rs 20 per mensem, were paid to Hospital Assistant Devadoss;

and

iv that the clerical work connected with the examinations is nevertheless attended to throughout the year for the allowance sanctioned by Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. No. 721 From the Director of Public Instruction No. 317, dated 7-3-1907.

SUBJECT. Submitting proposition statement for the employment of a temporary clerk on Rs 20 to Assist the President of the Board of Examiners, Medical College.

The appointment of a temporary clerk to assist the President of the Board of Examiners, Medical College, Madras, on a salary of Rs 20 per mensem for six months was first sanctioned in 1905 - please see G.O. No. 563 Ed. 16. 8.05. The period of six months on this occasion was calculated from 1st July 1905 to 1st December 1905 - five months - and from 1st February 1906 - one month.

2. The Director of Public Instruction in forwarding the necessary proposition statement ^{for the employment of the clerk this year also} states that the President failed to apply for the sanction of the clerk in time ^{in 1906} and requests that sanction may now be given for the employment of the clerk on Rs 20 for a period of six months - March to August - in each of the two years 1906 + 1907.

* Preliminary issue.

There is a provision of Rs 120 for the current year as well as for the next year - please see page 166 of the C.B. E for 1906-1907 + 1907-1908.

Page 5 of current.

3. The Accountant General, while he sees no audit objections to the proposal being sanctioned by Government, points out: -

* Pay. Rs 25.0-0-0.
Presidency allow. " 10.0-0-0.
House rent allow. 8.0-0-0
Total Rs 43-0-0

* It has been ascertained by reference to the President, Board of Examiners, Medical College, that a full time clerk was not appointed to the place last year, as contemplated in the proposal, but that the duties were performed by a Hospital Assistant ^{*} attached to the Royapettah Hospital, to whom therefore the allowance, if sanctioned, would become payable. It is therefore a question for the consideration of Government whether the whole amount of Rs 20, a month intended for a full time clerk should be granted to the Hospital Assistant.

Assistant

"Assistant who was doing the duties in 1906, and whether the same arrangement should be continued in the present year also."

1. In another letter which is now under the consideration of Government, the S.P.I has asked for permission to the Assistant Clerk of the Medical College doing the duties of the temporary clerk also, without prejudice to his own duties. Last year, the work was done by a Hospital Assistant in addition to his own duties. This year, it is proposed that the Assistant Clerk of the Medical College should be permitted to do it in addition to his own duties. It would appear, therefore, that full time clerk is not necessary to do the work. If this view is approved, it is for consideration whether any allowance may be paid & if so how much.

5. Attention is, in this connection, invited to G.O. no. 163 D. Rd. 21st March 1905 in which the Government decided to pay a clerical allowance to the President of the Board of Examiners and decided that, if clerical assistance was needed, a clerk should be specifically appointed for such time as his services were actually required.

27/3/07

It is submitted that the present proposal so far as it relates to the year 1907. May stand over, as the usual orders are passed on the S.P.I's separate proposal to pay. Make the Assistant Clerk of the Medical College do the duties of the temporary clerk and pay him the salary of the latter, namely. Rs 20 per mensem.

2. In 1906, no temporary clerk appears to have been having been sent G.O. no. 27/3/07.

been employed and the work appears to have been done by ~~the~~ Hospital assistant of the Royapettah hospital to whom the allowance of Rs 20 would become payable, if the proposal were sanctioned. It does not appear that the sanction of Govt was obtained to the hospital assistant having undertaken this work in addition to his duties. The proposition ^{statement} submitted by the D.P.D for the year 1906 is misleading and is for consideration whether he may be asked to revise his proposals -

Sec.

The President tried indirectly to effect the same end by getting the allowance passed personal to himself. The proposal was vetoed.

21.3.07

The whole matter has been dealt with in an exceedingly irregular manner. If the work can be done by the ordinary staff, it can be done without additional remuneration. There is no need for a special clerk.

2 If a special man is sanctioned for a special clerk, an independent man should be employed. The allowance should not be paid to a protégé of the President.

From the D.P.I. no. 317 of 11-5-07.

The D.P.I. reports that a sum of Rs 20 was paid in 1906 and that in 1905 Rs 120. Both these sums amounting to Rs 140 were paid to Hospital Assistant Devadors for seven months at Rs 20 a month.

2. ~~It is respectfully submitted that during~~ ^{appears to have been} 1906 nothing ~~was~~ drawn from the Treasury on account of the temporary clerk, as no sanction of Govt. was obtained for his employment. The sanction required for the employment of the clerk is only now sought and if it is given, the amount will be drawn from the Treasury and paid to Devadors. The sum of Rs 20 paid to Devadors

3. It is for consideration whether the payment of an allowance of Rs 20 to Hospital Assistant Devadass for six months in 1906 and for one month and seven days in 1907 (that is from 1st march to 7th April 1907) may now be sanctioned. From 8th April 1907 the Asst. Clerk of the Medical College will do the duties of the temporary clerk to the President of the Board of Examiners as part of his own duties - vide G.O. no. 206 Edl dated 8th April 1907.

31-5-07

The duties of the clerk to the Board of Examiners cannot apparently be said to be "within the branch of duty" of the hospital assistant, within the meaning of Article 71(a) of the Civil Service Regulations so as to bar his claim for additional remuneration. Perhaps an allowance of Rs 5 or Rs 10 in 1906 and for month & 7 days in 1907 per mensem for six months may be sanctioned.
