the town of Guadalupe. These were some of the best of the town, during the which was useful as manure to the Paddy fields, when the Chairman or its president was the Lord unto himself, and with a view to loom large as a popular president and to satisfy the wants of his party men he has allowed such excavations, which some of which are even twenty feet deep. They are filled-up with drainage water and filth and the water stagnating causes un-healthy conditions. These pits have prevented many building plans of side-by owners of sites. About two years back I brought this nuisance to the notice of the Council by way of interpellations and later notices were issued to the parties to have them filled up by certain dates, and the parties failing to do so were prosecuted. It was at this stage, that the Council ^{and the Chairman} have intervened and the Commissioner to please them have
