Dear Mr. Coorey,

I am laid up with fever in the General Hospital since yesterday night. Please therefore grant me casual leave for three days from 5th to 7th July 1945 at the expiry of which I hope I will be alright.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr Coorey.

I have a leave application for 12 days leave on average. Should I be fit before ^{the end of} that period I shall return to duty and cancel the leave.

My temperature has now returned to normal so my treatment will be mainly confined to my heat complaints which in spite of a course of injections and the use of a number of other medicines refuse to move, so I left. I have had where treatment I am under in the hospital has undertaken to clean up, such being the case I will be in a position to deal with many office papers which I am not confident of Mr Siddiquie handling.

My proposal therefore during my leave period is that Mr Siddiquie looks after the routine duties of the Dept and the other papers he sent to me in hospital for disposal.

Hoping to fit as soon as possible

Yours sincerely
C. J. Anderson
