R.C.No. 816-J/44 dated 29th May 1945.

Sir,
1 JUN 1945
pension--Sri S.V. Padmanabha Iyer, Late School Assistant-- Government College, Coimbatore--condonation of deficiency in qualifying service.

I have the honour to submit herewith the final pension papers of Sri S.V. Padmanabha Iyer, Late School Assistant, Government College, Coimbatore who retired from service with effect from 15.1.1945 and to state as follows:

The total service of the applicant on the date of retirement was 23 years 9 months and 23 days of which a period of 4 months and 20 days will not count for pension. As the qualifying service falls short of 24 years by 6 months and 27 days, the applicant has requested that the deficiency may be condoned in order that his pension may be calculated for 24 years of qualifying service. The Principal, Government Brennan College, Tellicherry where the applicant was working till recently has strongly recommended his request for condonation.

In this case the Principles laid down in Government Memorandum No. 37173 Pen-2 (Finance) dated 6.10.1939 are not satisfied but still I consider that the request of the applicant deserves consideration in view of the good work done by him.
Agreeably to the orders issued in Government Memorandum No.
18580-1 B Education dated 16.5.1945, I am submitting the case to Government and request that the deficiency of 6 months and 27 days in the qualifying service of the applicant may be condoned and that he may be granted a superannuation pension of Rs. 60/- per mensem with effect from 15.1.1945. The Accountant-General has already sanctioned an anticipatory pension of Rs. 57-8-0 to the applicant.

Pension - Sri S.V. Padmanabha Aiyar, late School Assistant, Government College, Coimbatore.
From the D.P.I., Rc.No.816-J/44, dated 29-5-1945.

The file deals with the recommendation of the D.P.I. that the deficiency of 6 months and 27 days in the service of Sri Padmanabha Aiyer, late School Assistant, to make 24 years qualifying service be condoned. Sri Padmanabha Aiyer retired from service on a superannuation pension with effect from 15-1-45 and the A.G. has admitted a pension of Rs 57-8-0 to him on the basis of 23 years.

2. The principles followed in condonation of deficiency in service are laid down in Memo No.37173 Pen-2 Fin. dated 6th October 1939. Sri Padmanabha Aiyer ^{case} satisfies none of these conditions. The Principal, Govt. Brennen College, Trichy, where the School Assistant was working, has strongly recommended the concession remarking that the School Assistant richly deserves it. The D.P.I. has submitted the case for the orders of the Govt. in accordance with Memo No.18580-1B Edn. dated 16-5-45.

3. Submitted that there appears to be nothing in the case to justify a departure from the principles prescribed in this regard. The cases ^{previous} cited by the D.P.I. in this connection relate to the Gazetted officers and are not parallel cases. The grant of the concession in this case will therefore constitute an inconvenient precedent.

4. If the Edn. & P.H. Dept. wish to press the concession they may circulate the case to A.1 also. Final orders in any case may be issued by them.
