Education - Elementary - Tinnevely District Board - Introduction of compulsion in rural areas.
G.O.No.M.S.1096 Edn. dated 19--7--45.

In their order quoted above the Government have stated that compulsory education should be introduced for all children of school age in the Villages of Srivaikuntam, Tiruchendur, Koilpatti, Sankarankoil, Tenkasi, Nanguneri, Ambasamudram, Munnirpallam and Kadayanallur. The District Educational Officer, Tinnevely in his letter dated 27-8-45 states that the restriction of the introduction of compulsion to the limits of the revenue village alone would not bring under instruction the number of pupils proposed to be brought under the scheme of compulsion and that the word "Villages" may be deleted and the word "Centres" substituted in its place.

I therefore request that Government may be pleased to issue revised orders deleting the word "Villages" and substituting the word "Centres" in its stead.

Subject:- Introduction of compulsory education.

Reference: From The President, District Board, Tinnevely, No. D.1-15730/45, dated the 1st September, 1945.

What is of importance is that the selection of areas for the introduction of compulsory education should be so made that the number of children of school-age newly brought under instruction does not exceed the figures given in the Appendix. It is not clear how the substitution of the word "centres" for "villages" without reference to the area implied by the centre concerned will achieve the purpose. The area should have reference to a standard unit which generally is the revenue village. The President, District Board, Tinnevely, is requested to report further on the matter, through the Director of Public Instruction.
