Sir,

Emigration - War - Evacuees - Sivaganga Taluk - Keelapasalai village - Subramanian, N.V. - A student of the Junior Intermediate class, the American College, Madura - Financial assistance.

Reference: Petition dated 19-10-1944 from N.V.
Subramanian.

N.V. Subramanian of Keelapasalai village, Sivaganga Taluk a dependent on his father who is stranded in Burma, having passed his S.S.L.C. examination in 1944 has applied for financial assistance to continue his studies in the College. The student received an evacuee allowance of Rs.15 per mensem for himself and his sister for the months of April, May and June 1944. Subsequently he could not receive the above allowance as he joined the Junior Intermediate class in the American College, Madura.

The Petitioner and his sister Meenakshi were under the care of his cousin Somasundaram Ayyar. The latter has been supporting him upto the S.S.L.C. Class. But he has now expressed his inability to educate the boy in the College any longer. He requires now maintenance allowance for the boy's sister as he is under his care. The petitioner has got a house worth about Rs.800 and one acre of land (Nanja) worth about Rs.500. He gets an yield of about 5 Kalams worth about Rs.70 from the land. This is insufficient for his maintenance in the College.

3 The Principal, the American College, Madura has furnished a statement of expenditure for Rs.349/- to be incurred by the student for the accademic year 1944-45 in the Junior Intermediate class. I recommend that a sum of Rs.349/- may be sanctioned to the student. His petition and the communication received from the Principal are enclosed.
