3. Besides, there are several officials who were sent on Field Service to Malaya and Singapore and who are now prisoners of War. As communications to the Far East have been suspended, it is not possible to obtain the necessary certificate from the officers commanding in respect of applications for concessions to the children and dependants of these officials.

4. To obviate these difficulties, a modification of para 3 (4) (i) of the G.O. under reference would appear necessary.

5. A reference made by me to the D.A.D.A.P.S., H.Q., 105 L of C area, c/o 14 A.B.P.O. shows that the certificate contemplated in the I.A.O. No. 1182/44 mentioned in the G.O. is expected to furnish information on the following:

- (a) whether the soldier has been enrolled as a combatant,
- (b) if he is liable to serve overseas and
- (c) if he sends his family allotment regularly.

In respect of P & T officials on F.S. this office is in a position to furnish information on all these points, by a reference if necessary to the Officer in charge of Accounts & Records, Indian Army Postal Service, Nagpur. If considered necessary this office can also furnish information on the following points :-

- (i) the Act under which the soldier has been enrolled.
- (ii) his date of enrolment and whether he has six months' approved military service and
- (iii) if the pay of the soldier exceeds Rs.200/- or not.

6. It would facilitate the prompt disposal of such cases regarding P & T officials on Field Service, if the R Postmaster-General, Madras, is also authorised to issue the relevant certificates. If you see no objection, I would request you to place the matter before the local Government and favour me with a copy of the orders passed thereon.

p. 1 of From the P.M.G., No. WB/EC/6/45 dt. 31.7.45.

Educational concessions to children and dependants of soldiers - Definition of the term "pay".

When the pay limit of Rs. 200/- p.m. was fixed in G.O. No. 610 Edu., dated 20.4.45 it was not discussed what the term "pay" should mean.

It is however submitted that the term should be taken to refer to the total emoluments of the soldier, i.e., his basic pay plus allowances. Allowances form a good portion of a soldier's income, and it would only seem fair that the allowances of a soldier also should be taken into account in arriving at his "pay" for the purpose of granting educational concessions. These concessions are meant to benefit only those soldiers who are not in "affluent circumstances".

A soldier who may not be able to educate his children with his basic pay alone, might very well be able to educate them with his total income as soldier - basic pay plus allowances.

It is not clear how the term "pay" is being interpreted by the revenue authorities who have been authorised to grant certificates under para 3(4)(ii) of Appendix to G.O. I.

It may be mentioned in this connection, that for the purpose of granting the grant of fee concessions under MFR 92, the income limits of parents of pupils have been raised by Govt so as to include dearness allowance, besides pay.

Submitted for orders whether the P.M.G. may be told that the term "pay" used in the G.O. I would include allowances also.

May be so told. Please see p. 118/45 and 119/45. Basic pay.

1. The intention appears to be that the upper limit fixed should be the "income" of the soldier of not the basic pay alone. In the notes for instance on pp 9-12 of 7 flag (I) in the top file, the words 'income' & 'pay' are both used, evidently with the same meaning. This also seems to be the proper standard to judge whether a soldier is in "affluent" circumstances. Not the basic pay alone. As observed by E. P. H. Dept. on p. 1. ante, for the purpose of concessions under the Madras Educational Rules the income limits include dearness allowance in addition to pay.

2. This Sept. may therefore take the view that it should be the total emolument of the soldier including all allowances that should be taken into consideration of not basic pay alone.
