Sir,

Sub: Schools - European - Provincial Board for Anglo-Indian and European Education - appointment of a member in place of Mr. Wynter Blythe who has resigned.

In G.O.No.Ms.21, Education, dated 5-1-43, Mr. M.A. Wynter Blythe, Principal, Laidlaw Memorial School of St. George's Home, Keti, was appointed as a member of the Provincial Board for Anglo Indian and European Education. He has since sent in his resignation from the Board I recommend that the resignation tendered by him may be accepted and to suggest that Rev. F.R.L. Brooke, Principal of the Lawrence Memorial Royal Military School, Lovedale, may be nominated instead. The latter is the head of a large school of about 600 children and would be very useful on the Provincial Board.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
