No. B-5.4270/45 dated 17-9-45.

Sir,

Clothing - ordinary - 2 peons of the Special Officer for Commercial Taxes - warm - 1 peon of the Asst.
Commercial Tax Officer - supply - Board's Ref:-P.
1966/45-1 dated 6-9-45 to Government (Para 2).

It is presumed that the two peons to work under the Special Officer are personally attending on him.

As the Assistant Commercial Tax Officer is not a Gazetted officer please state whether warm clothing is necessary to the peon under him. If the officer has touring work, the period of stay from the headquarters may kindly be intimated and the necessity for the supply of warm clothing may be scrutinised.
If the supply is justified I request to be informed whether any reduction in the scale of warm clothing can be made as detailed below in view of the fact that the post is temporary and the tour is not likely to last for a long period.

1. One serge suit (long coat and trousers)
2. One red turban (4 yards of Red Turkey cloth)
3. One Flannel shirt along with items 3, 6 and 8 only under warm clothing.

STATIONERY OFFICE (MADRAS) AT GUINDY, SAIDAPET P.O.

ENDORSEMENT No. B-5-4270/45 dated 20 -10- 1945.

Returned.

Sanction may be accorded for the supply of ordinary clothing to each of the two peons, personally attending on the Special Officer, Commercial Taxes as per scale applied for, the period of wear being fixed as two years for all the items.

In the Board's reference Np.P.1966/45-2 dated 2-10-1945, extracts of paras 1 and 2 communicated for information, the Board considers the supply of warm clothing necessary for 1 peon working under the A.C.T.O. who has to tour for the major portion of the month and has accepted the proposed scale viz., 1 serge suit, 1 Red turban, 1 flannel shirt along with the items 3, 6 and 8 mentioned in the Board's reference. Sanction may therefore be -- accorded for the supply of warm clothing as per restricted supply. The period of wear will be the same as that prescribed for peons in the Board of Revenue.

The articles of clothing (ordinary and warm) may be ordered to be returned to this department as soon as the post of peons -- cease to exist.
