R.C.No.1089-A/45 dated 26th September 1945.

Sir,

Government Training Schools for women, Calicut, Palghat and Udipi - conversion of the higher standards of Model schools into Forms I - III.

In connection with part II of the Budget Estimate for 1946-47, I have the honour to submit for the favourable consideration of Government the following proposal for the conversion of the higher standards of the Model schools attached to the Government Training schools for women at Calicut, Palghat and Udipi into Forms I, II and III of a secondary school.

2. The Inspectress reports that the existing facilities for the Secondary education for girls at Calicut, Palghat and Udipi are quite inadequate and that as many as 380, 237 and 141 girls in each of the above places respectively are obliged to read in the High schools for boys. She also states that a number of girls are staying at home for want of proper facilities for the furtherance of their studies. There are now 3 High schools for girls at Calicut and one High school for girls at Palghat and Udipi. It is reported that the above Girls' High schools are already full and that there is no likelihood of the managements expanding their schools. The Inspectress proposes the conversion of the higher standards of the Model schools attached to the Government Training schools for women, at Calicut, Palghat and Udipi into Forms I, II and III and to open also Form IV in 1946-47 in each of the schools with a view to their gradual development of these into High schools. In view of the increasing demand for secondary education for girls in the three centres mentioned above, there is a real need to provide for additional facilities. But there is no accommodation in each of the above schools for the opening of additional classes. Proposals for additional accommodation require further examination. Pending this question, I recommend sanction for the conversion of the higher standards of the Model schools in the three Training schools, in question, into Forms I - III from the school year 1946-47. This will be a preparation for the development of the schools into complete High schools.

3. The existing strength of the higher standards in each school and the probable strength after conversion into Forms I - III are shown below:

	EXISTING STRENGTH			PROPOSED STRENGTH
	standard	standard	standard	form	form	form
	VI	VII	VIII	I	II	III
Government Training School, Calicut	63	44	27	50	45	45
Government Training School, Palghat	27	17	6	40	36	30
Government Training School, Udipi	35	24	14	40	35	35

The low strength of higher standards is due to the growing demand for Secondary education.

4. The proposal does not involve any extra cost to Government.

5. I am including the proposal as a Part II Scheme for 1946-47.

I have the honour to be,
sir,
Your most obedient servant,

D. Ling Nanyan

proposal, it need not, perhaps, be treated as a Part II Scheme for 1946-47 as suggested by the Director. The draft overleaf may issue with the concurrence of Finance.

Although the usual policy is to rely on private agencies and local bodies for the expansion of facilities for the secondary education of boys, the Govt. provide secondary schools for girls at the cost of Provl. funds. Additional expenditure will, however, be required on account of staff, equipment and buildings, when Forms IV to VI are opened in subsequent years.
