Sir,

S. DUNCAN, Mr. - Assistant Superintendent of Stationery & Stamps - Leave under F.R.86(a) and (b) - Grant of - Requested.

An extension of the services of Mr. S. Duncan, as Assistant Superintendent of Stamps & Stationery for a period of one year from 1-11-1943 was granted in G.O. Ms. No. 285, Edn., dated 23-2-1943.
 A further extension of the service by one year was also granted in G.O. No. Ms. 799 Edn., dated 23-5-1944. The latter extension expires by 31-10-1945. Both the above extensions of service of Mr. S. Duncan was in the interest of public service. He applied for leave out of India for 8 months on 20-8-1943 intending to avail himself of the leave from 1-3-1944 or from the date of relief. But this leave was refused in G.O. No. Ms. 1392 Edn., & P.H., dated 16-10-1943 and it was stated in this Government Order that he would be granted six months' leave at the end of his extended period of duty subject to eligibility.

11/11/45
 3-4-45
 10/10/45

As contemplated in the proviso to rule 86(a)(i) of the Fundamental Rules, a formal application for the leave was made on 20-8-1943 and he was refused the leave on 16-10-1943, that is, before he attained the age of 55 or before the date of his compulsory retirement.

Mr. Duncan wrote a D.O. to the Asst. Accountant-General, Madras to ascertain the amount of leave at credit on 1-11-1943 which could be availed of after 1-11-1945 the date on which the extended period expires. Without furnishing the information regarding the amount of leave at credit on 1-11-1943, he has replied that all leave at credit on 1-11-1943 lapsed on the ground that, according to the application for leave, the leave was proposed to be taken after the date of compulsory retirement and that he would be eligible for leave only to the extent of 1/11th of the duty performed subsequent to 1-11-1943. The view taken by the Accountant-General is not understood. As Mr. Duncan was kept in service under extension in the requirements of Public service and his leave also was deferred in the public interest, I request that Government will be pleased to consider his case and grant him the leave calculated at 1/11th of duty from 1-11-1943 with permission to add thereto the amount of leave which stood to his credit on 1-11-1943 subject to a maximum of 6 months as per G.O.No.1392, Education & P.H.Department, dated 16-10-1943.

in vacation departments for any period after the 3rd September 1939 will be ineligible for these concessions. Cases of substantial hardship arising out of this decision will be considered by Govt. on their merits.

Officers whose conditions of service are governed by contract will also be ineligible for these concessions, but the Central Govt., may, on a consideration of the merits of each case, allow specialist service officers, whose conditions are governed by the Fundamental Rules, the Civil Service Regulations or the Revised Leave Rules, the concession to the same extent as for Class I officers.

2. The extent of the concessions is as follows:--

(i). The maximum amount of leave on average pay which may be granted in all to an officer under Fundamental Rule 81 (b) (i) and (ii) will be increased by one month for each completed year of service, beginning on the 1st October 1942. This will not however increase the rate at which leave is earned under F.R. 77, or the maximum amount of leave expressed in terms of leave on average pay, which may be granted under F.R. 81 (a). The additional leave on average pay will be debited in the leave account as leave on half-average pay to the extent of double the period actually taken on average pay. If combined with ordinary leave on average pay, it will increase to that extent the maximum limits, prescribed in F.R. 81 (b) (i) and (ii) and the proviso thereto of leave that may be taken on average pay at any one time.

(ii) In the case of officers subject to the leave rules in the Civil Service Regulations the maximum amount of privilege leave or furlough on average salary, which may be earned and granted under Articles 246, 251 and 316-A of the C.S.R., will be increased by one month for each completed year of service beginning on the 1st October 1942. The rate at which furlough is earned by, or the maximum amount of furlough in all which may be granted to an officer, will not be increased by the grant of this additional leave. The additional privilege leave or furlough on average salary will be treated as furlough on half-average salary for twice the period actually taken. The additional furlough on average salary will not count as an interruption of duty for the purposes of Art. 246 C.S.R. and will not accordingly forfeit any privilege leave that may be admissible.

(iii) In the case of officers governed by the Revised Leave Rules, 1933, the maximum amount of earned leave that may be granted under Rule 9 of these rules will be increased by 15 days for each completed year of service, beginning on the 1st October 1942. The period of leave on private affairs which may otherwise be admissible will be reduced to the extent of twice the period of additional earned leave thus taken.

3. The concessions enumerated above will be admissible for a period of three years from the 1st October 1942, i.e. the total amount of converted leave admissible will be three months in the case of officers governed by the leave rules in the Fundamental Rules and the C.S.R., and 45 days in the case of officers governed by the Revised Leave Rules, 1933. The concessions will lapse on the 30th September 1945. If, however, this additional leave has been applied for in writing during this triennium and refused in the exigencies of the public service, before the 30th September 1945, it may be granted to the extent due and subject to the condition that it will not extend beyond the 30th September 1946. The maximum limits for leave salary, which are normally applicable under the relevant rules will continue to apply as though this leave were leave on average pay, privilege leave or furlough on average salary, or earned leave, as the case may be admissible under the normal rules. The actual period spent on this additional leave except where it takes the form of furlough on average salary will count as privilege leave for purposes of pension (including additional and proportionate pensions) or annuity, subject to the restriction that if such additional leave (other than furlough on average salary) is combined with the corresponding leave normally admissible, only the first four months in the case of officers subject to the leave rules in the C.S.R. and the F.Rs. and the first 90 days in the case of those governed by the Revised Leave Rules, 1933, of the total period of the combined will count as privilege leave for purposes of pension or annuity and the rest of that period as well as the actual period period of the additional leave which takes the form of furlough on average salary whether taken alone or in combination with other leave will count as leave with allowances for the purposes of Art. 408 of the C.S.R. For the purpose of calculating "completed years of service", the term "service" means gross service including leave. The leave concessions mentioned above are admissible only in respect of completed years of service.

4. Any period of leave on average pay, privilege leave, furlough on average salary or earned leave enjoyed in India between the 1st October 1942 and the 30th September 1945 will be adjusted against the additional leave admissible under these orders, in respect of the period of three years ending the 30th September 1945 up to a maximum of three months or 45 days in all, as the case may be.

5. The additional leave can be consumed only in India, but may be granted in combination with other leave admissible in or out of India under the relevant rules.

6. The additional leave for any year may be availed of in that year in anticipation of its accrual. If any overpayment of leave salary is subsequently found to have occurred because of the leave thus availed of not being earned by the completion of a year's service, it will be recovered from the officer concerned, cases in which recovery is not possible being reported for orders of the Government of India.

7. This additional leave in India will also be admissible as leave preparatory to retirement whether commencing before or after or with the

the date of compulsory retirement and during the period of an extension of service after that date, subject to the fulfilment of the conditions and the limitations prescribed in relevant rules; provided that in the computation of the total amount of leave admissible after the date of compulsory retirement or final cessation of duties or during the extended service, the actual period of additional leave that may be granted will be taken into account.

8. I am to request that the nature of these concessions may be brought to the notice of such eligible officers as are serving under the administrative control of the Provincial Government. The Provincial Governments will no doubt consider the issue of similar orders in respect of services under their rule-making control. The Govt. of India would also like it to be impressed on all authorities competent to sanction leave, that, as it is desirable at this stage of the war to encourage officers to take as much recuperation leave as possible, leave intended for this purpose should not be refused save in exceptional circumstances.

9. I am to state that, in view of the temporary nature of the concessions, the Auditor-General, who has been consulted, has agreed not to press for any formal amendments to the rules.

Sir,
In forwarding herewith the application dated 28-8-45 of Mr. S. Duncan for leave, I have the honour to observe as follows:-

As already pointed out in this Office No. G.A. III. S.P.

applied for in sufficient time and been refused by Government vide, Fundamental Rule 86(b).

18/10/45 Was any appⁿ for leave made by Mr.Duncan during the vacation in question & refused? I don't know. Reconfirm.

18/10/45

Submitted. No application for leave was made by Duncan

Subsequent to that disposed off in the G.O. at (P). Moreover the concessional leave admissible under G.O. 462 Fin d 5.9.44 was made applicable to Mr.Duncan only in G.O. No 539 Fin d. 7.5.45 and this fact was communicated to the Sgts in the Memo at (W). Any appⁿ for this concessional leave should therefore have been made subsequent to 16.5.1945 and this has not been done.

I have answered Para 2. Finance may see the draft before issue (cf. Para 2)

Para 1 of the draft order. Under F.R. 86(b) the maximum amount of leave that can be granted to a Govt. servant retained in service after the date of compulsory retirement should not exceed 6 months. It is now proposed to refuse leave to Mr. Duncan, Asst. Superintendent of Stationery and to allow him to carry forward 6 months leave in respect of his service prior to retirement on 1-11-45. The leave on average pay at his credit on 31-10-43 was 4 months and 11 days. The leave earned by him during extension of service from 1-11-43 to 28-8-45, the date of his application for leave, is 2 months. Thus the total period of leave to which he will be eligible on the date of his retirement on 1-11-45 will be limited to 6 months only.

Para 2 of the draft order. The concessional leave sanctioned in G.O. 462 Fin., dated 5-9-44 is only conversion of the half average pay leave into average pay leave. As Mr. Duncan has no leave on half average pay to his credit, he cannot have the benefit of the concessional leave sanctioned in G.O. 462 Fin., dated 5-9-44. This may be made clear in the draft.

Subject to the above remarks the draft order may be accepted and the case returned to E.& P.H.

18/10/45 E.P.H.

Para 2 of the draft order on P1 ante may be amended on the lines of Para 2 of Fin note above.

A revised draft order is submitted for approval

Rece the advs in circ on C/4 and the subsequent notes at D/34. Leave appⁿ for may be formally refused.

The draft may issue.
