Sir,

SUBJECT:- Advance - General Provident Fund - Sri S.Narasimha Ayyangar, Lecturer, Government Arts College, Rajahmundry.

Sri S.Narasimha Iyyengar, Lecturer in English, Government Arts College, Rajahmundry, has applied for an advance of Rs.720/- from the amount to his credit in the General Provident Fund to meet expenses in connection with the illness of his wife. It is stated that she is suffering from a nervous break down and the advance is required to give her urgent medical treatment under expert Malabar Physicians.

2) The applicant is in receipt of a salary of Rs.300/- per mensem. The amount applied for does not therefore exceed his three months pay. But, it exceeds half the amount to his credit in the fund which was Rs.1036/- as on 31-3-45. Further, the interest on the advance sanctioned to him in the Director's Proceedings Dis.792/42, dated 26-3-42 has not yet been recovered. The Accountant General who was consulted in the matter reports in his Endorsement Fds. 3-303, dated 9-10-45 (copy enclosed) that there is no audit objection to the advance being sanctioned by Government for special reasons under Rule 14 (1)(c)(ii) and para 2 of the 6th Schedule to the General Provident Fund (Madras) Rules.

3) As I am convinced of the need for the present advance to the subscriber, I have the honour to recommend that Government may be pleased to sanction the advance recoverable in 24 instalments of Rs.30/- each.
