Three hundred and sixty only) to meet the expenses incurred and to be incurred in connection with the medical treatment of the prolonged illness of his wife. The applicant's pay is Rs. 150/- per mensem and the amount standing to his credit in the General Provident Fund account on 1-4-1944 was Rs. 2,512/-. The amount applied for does not, therefore, exceed the 3 months' pay of the applicant or half of the amount standing to his credit in the General Provident Fund.

A second advance of Rs. 300/- was also sanctioned to the applicant in October 1942 in connection with the prolonged illness of his wife. These first and second advances were repaid on 1-3-44 and 2-8-1944 respectively. As a period of 12 months has not yet elapsed from the dates of repayment of the above mentioned 1st and 2nd advances, the present advance, which is to be treated as a third advance, can only be sanctioned by Government, the next
